

SOLD DOWN THE RIVER?

OPEN LETTER TO HARBOROUGH PLANNERS

Parish Council members noted with considerable concern Harborough Planning Committee's recent decision to permit, without a community fund contribution, the development of Begley's Yard, in Church Lane.

It is the Council's contention that some explanation should be offered for the Planning Committee's decision to waive the Town & Country Planning Act 1990, Section 106 requirement for this development. The proposal clearly stands well within HDC's declared criteria for Section 106 contribution yet the Planning Committee felt obliged to concede the requirement. Surely a precedent is now set and the Committee will have little power to enforce the obligation on future developments, here or elsewhere throughout the district. At parish level we are asked to accept the extra burden of a substantial new development; its additional traffic movement, over-development of the site and subsequent congestion without the mitigation of a percentage of social or low-cost housing, educational and community contribution that Section 106 would have funded.

Aside from the Section 106 debate this Council believes that the proposals could, and should, have been modified by the Planning Committee to make the development less intrusive to the local environment. The Parish Council is happy to support the development of the site for housing as an obvious improvement over the existing use as a builder's yard. However, the site lies within the core of the village and common sense would suggest that the plans as presented called for additional work to alleviate potential traffic, parking and access problems and to address the over-bearing nature of the proposals.

We believe that the Planning Committee were ill-advised to defer judgement, pending further information on the viability of the project, at the earlier hearing in December. A refusal at that point, based on valid arguments raised by local residents and the Parish Council on over-development of the site and traffic problems, would have been justified and would have encouraged the developer to seek to address these issues. Delay in making a decision has allowed a poor and hasty judgement to be made, to the detriment of the local community.

SHOW OFF!

Don't forget that there are a host of new classes for entries in the Horticulture and Craft Show on August 30th. There are, of course, the usual flower and produce classes but you don't have to be green fingered to enter the painting or craft classes. A keen trigger finger on the camera might get you that special picture that bowls over the judges in the photographic classes.

Youngsters are well catered for in the Children's Show with a range of cookery, craft and art classes to suit all ages.

So, dig out the Show Entry Form that was tucked into last month's Bugle, put on your thinking caps and get started.

If you are not exhibiting come along and marvel at the enormous onions and the delightful delphiniums. Doors open to the public from 2.00pm and there will be light refreshments served throughout the afternoon.

Let's make this the best show in years!

FESTIVE THANKS

A fly-past of the Gliding Centre's tug Aplanes, the appearance of the US 82nd Airborne re-enactors group, displays of old farm machinery and vehicles and trade stands really gave this year's Bosworth Festival the air of a traditional country fair. Perfect weather for the day ensured the success of the event. The picnic on the lawn, to the accompaniment of live music, ended the day perfectly.

On behalf of the village the Bugle would like to thank Robert and Susan Constable-Maxwell for allowing us to take over the Hall gardens and Park, to the members of the local branch of the Royal British Legion, and the Parish Council for their support. Special thanks, as always, to John Clarke who spent most of the last twelve months pulling strings and twisting arms to get the field activities together.

The Festival raised approximately £2,000 towards local charities and good causes.

VALETE

It is with great sadness that we record the passing of Sue Warburton of Welford Road, following a long and progressive illness borne with tremendous fortitude.

Sue was a founding member of the Bugle Team back in 1996, helping to create our successful format and keeping the Editor's wayward grammar and apostrophes in check with her quiet but firm direction.

Due to work commitments and the onset of her long battle with Motor Neurone Disease, Sue left the Bugle Team in 2002. In her illness, Sue was an inspiration to us all and will be greatly missed by those who had the good fortune to know her.

Her legacy within Husbands Bosworth continues today in the high standards of accuracy that the Bugle Team strive to maintain in the production of the newsletter.

POSTBAG

From A grateful village family.

I would like to thank John Clarke and his helpers for a superb day and evening at this year's Party in the Park. Myself and family thoroughly enjoyed the event, I just thought it was a pity that so few of the villagers supported this event in the way it should have been. People moan about no community spirit! What was the local activity groups' input? From what I could see they missed a great chance of raising much-needed funds for the charities being supported and raising their own profile at the same time, I'm sure!! So, well done to those who came to support the village festival - shame on those that didn't; you missed a great day.

EDITOR'S NOTE: It was particularly disappointing, from an organisers point of view, that so few village groups or village based businesses supported the event. Here was a 'shop window' to display your activity, raise funds and perhaps generate a little local business... and, unlike other fairs, the stand space was free and plentiful. To those that did support the event, on behalf of the village we extend our very grateful thanks.

From 'Disturbed of Bell Lane'

I write on behalf of the residents of lower Bell Lane. It's enough that we have to contend with the ever-growing shakes, rattles and noise of traffic belting down here but there's an equally disturbing problem with continual barking of dogs, often late into the night. Hot weather and the need to open windows at night adds to the problem. Aside from this though, what about the poor dogs? And what are the owners doing at these times? Please show more respect for your neighbours, and indeed your pets, or the next step may be to call in the Dog Warden... Do we really need to go there?

CRIME FILE

- Car stolen whilst parked outside a property in Walcote
- A laptop computer and a sat-nav device left inside an unattended car parked in Kilworth House Hotel car park were stolen
- A motorcycle was stolen from outside a house in Arnesby
- A silver Volvo C70 car was vandalised during the daytime whilst parked at commercial premises in School Lane, Husbands Bosworth
- Northants police have noted a number of sheep rustling incidents recently

DISTRACTION CRIME

A new distraction burglary scam seems to be operating locally. A person calls at the home of an elderly or vulnerable occupant saying that they have won a prize in a random draw and they need to come in to write out a receipt. A second person knocks on the door whilst this is going on, distracting the householder momentarily. Later it is realised that property and money has been taken.

Harborough police would remind all our elderly residents to be suspicious of any unexpected callers to their homes. In addition to this we would like to remind everyone to report any suspicious activity to the police immediately on 999 – we would really love the opportunity to put away these particularly callous criminals.

LATE NEWS...

Property was stolen from unattended cars parked in golf club car parks in Lutterworth and North Kilworth. Holes were made in the car doors to release the door locks, entry was gained and property was stolen.

CANAL TRIP OF A LUNCHTIME

The canal trip prize, at the Black & White Ball, of a champagne day out on a narrowboat cruising the local canals, which was donated by Anna Raven, was won by Julie and Richard Nichols.

TOY LIBRARY

The South Leicestershire Toy Library was Councillor Brian Smith's nominated charity during his year in office as Chairman of Harborough District Council, which ended in May.

The charity benefited to the tune of over £700 from events and meetings throughout the year at which Brian, and his wife, Frances, promoted the scheme.

GLIDING ACTION

The Gliding Centre, based at Husbands Bosworth airfield, will be hosting the 18 metre National Championships at Husbands Bosworth from July 25th to August 2nd.

From August 8th to August 16th the Midlands Regional Qualifying Competition will be flying from the Centre.

Whilst increased flying activity may be apparent during these competitions outward and return tug flying will avoid built up areas wherever possible.

Visitors are always welcome at the airfield. Call in and watch the flying whilst having a drink or snack from our restaurant, or call in to discuss flying options and learner packages with our helpful office staff.

COPPER CHOPPER

You can now check out where the Leicestershire, Northamptonshire and Warwickshire police air support helicopter, which is based at Sulby, has been deployed. An on-line incident log is now up and running, which gives the nature of the incident and, in most cases, the outcome of the helicopter's intervention.

From the log it is evident that the helicopter sometimes 'hops' from job to job without returning to base. It also carries out pre-planned routine reconnaissance and recording work when returning from a call-out to maximise the use of the resource.

TALENT SCOUT

Magicians and vocalists, musicians and raconteurs - Husbands Bosworth performers pulled out all the stops at the recent Bosworth's Got Talent concert.

In a fine evening of home-spun entertainment the local djembe African drumming group, on their first public outing, opened the show and set a cracking pace. Singers Bethany, Pauline and Maurice, excelled with renditions from serene to classical. Balladeer Bob Soulsby strummed out some old favourites - talent scouts noting future performers during the audience participation sequences!

The Rev. Alison skilfully gathered up the audience with a gripping tale of highwaymen, inn doors and unrequited love and The Amazing Avery, and his able assistant, Henry, baffled all with their prestidigitation (Ed. - magic, to you!).

Penny and Lorrie would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who showed off their amazing talents, especially master of ceremonies Bill Fletcher for his seamless introductions. Special thanks also to all those unsung souls who worked feverishly behind the scenes to make the event a success.

The event raised about £600 for Loros, the Leicestershire hospice charity.

DON'T MISS THE NATIONAL FOREST WOOD FAIR 2009

Beacon Hill Country Park, Near Woodhouse Eaves, August Bank Holiday, Monday, August 31st.

If you love trees, beautiful things made of wood and enjoy a day out in the country, The National Forest Wood Fair is the place for you. The Wood Fair is now in its fifth year, and just gets bigger and better. New this year will be an exciting lumberjack show, longbow displays and a fascinating programme of talks on trees and woodland.

The chainsaw carvers will be out in force, entertaining the crowd with a 'speed carve', and producing items for the charity auction. There will be live demonstrations of woodworking skills, craft displays and hands-on activities. Children can handle the birds of prey, have a go at craft activities, archery and the climbing wall, and they will love the stories and songs from the Wild Man of the Woods.

The Wood Fair is a brilliant opportunity to find out more about woodlands, from tree planting to felling, and how The National Forest itself is developing. You can see forestry in action including timber processing and horse logging.

The Wood Fair will run from 10.00am-5.00pm. Admission charge includes car parking and a programme and will cost adults £6, concessions £4 and a family ticket £14 (for two adults and three children).

BEWARE THE 'YELLOW GUIDE'

Many Leicestershire businesses have recently been e-mailed by "The UK Yellow Guide" which uses a logo similar to that of Yellow Pages. It asks for faxed confirmation that the details they hold are correct, with free amendments.

However, on reading the conditions, the paperwork turns out to be an application form for a 2 or 3 year contract, costing £699 per annum. The trader is a company called Ucalegon Ltd., with a Seychelles address and the contract is subject to Czech law. Trading Standards advise that to avoid being billed for £699 businesses must not reply to the application form.

David Bull, Head of Leicestershire County Council Trading Standards Service, said, "I advise all county organisations and businesses to ensure that staff are on the lookout for this and similar mailings. The layout of the e-mail and form are designed to mislead people into thinking that this is a free update by the bona fide Yellow Pages organisation. In fact it is a very expensive web database run by a completely unrelated business."

If you suspect that you have been targeted by this or any other scam, contact the Trading Standards Business Advice Line on 0116 305 8000.

ELDERBERRY v. VIRUS!

Viruses penetrate our body's cells by puncturing them with tiny spikes. Madeleine Mumcuoglu, a virologist, discovered that 'interferon', an elderberry extract, disarms these spikes binding to them so they cannot attack our cells. Secondly, (as if the elderberry is not already off to a good start!) Madeleine discovered that the spikes on the virus cell are covered with an enzyme called 'neuraminidase' which helps to break down our cell walls. However, elderberry stops the enzyme from doing this, giving us a fighting chance. Elderberry may well be something to protect us against flu viruses.

GARDEN BONFIRES

CODE OF PRACTICE

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION ACT 1990 GARDEN BONFIRES

Garden refuse can be burnt in gardens providing smoke nuisance is not caused to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood. The following Code of Practice is suggested:

1. Compost as much garden refuse for your own use as possible.
2. If you can't use compostible material yourself dispose of it in your green recycling bin.
3. Large woody cuttings, etc., unsuitable for composting, should be thoroughly dried before being burnt. A quick, hot fire will produce the minimum of smoke.
4. Remember your neighbour.
5. Don't light a bonfire if the wind will cause the smoke to be a nuisance to anyone.
6. Try to limit fires to one a month and if weather conditions are suitable have a good, quick blaze around sunset when the minimum of nuisance should be caused.
7. No fire should be left unattended. Never leave a fire to smoulder but douse it with soil or water.
8. Never add household refuse to a garden bonfire.
9. The local authority is prepared to collect garden refuse, at a small charge, providing it is properly bagged or bundled.
10. Disposal points under the civic Amenities Act have been provided by Leicestershire County Council for disposal of bulky refuse, free of charge. Information relating to these sites or the special collection service, can be obtained by contacting the Waste Management Section at this office (Tel: 01858 821132).

A smoky bonfire could be actionable under the Environmental Protection Act 1990. If the local authority is satisfied that a situation prejudicial to health or a nuisance has occurred, even though it has temporarily ceased but is likely to recur, an Abatement Notice can be served on the person responsible.

If this code is followed problems should be minimised.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL

It might still be summer [Ed. - ???!] but already the Christmas Festival stalwarts at All Saints Church are beavering away!

Following on from last year's successful Festival, plans are being laid for this year's event to be held at the beginning of Advent, over the weekend of Saturday, November 28th and Sunday, November 29th.

As last year, the displays don't have to be Christmas trees - anything with a Christmas or Advent theme will be acceptable! Don't forget that entries are open to all ages, individuals, businesses or groups. There will be the usual fun competitions and special prizes for entries with the most votes.

More information and schedules will be available nearer the time, but in the meantime get your thinking caps on!

Never give your bank or credit card details to anyone. This is the warning from Leicestershire Trading Standards after receiving complaints about a new scam from people who have lost money from their accounts to fraudsters.

It appears that the scamsters usually phone to establish which bank the consumer uses. They then call again on another day and request the customer's bank card details as a fee to reclaim charges from a bank. Consumers have said that they were told that they were talking to a bank official, but the banks have denied this.

Scamsters approached a householder saying that the bank had overcharged her on a transaction. They asked for her card details to repay the overcharge. Luckily the consumer knew she had never made that transaction and realised that this was a scam.

David Bull, Head of Trading Standards at Leicestershire County Council, said:-

"If you give confidential information to anyone who phones you out of the blue, remember that you may be giving it to a criminal who just wants to defraud you or to a business which is not telling the truth.
