

UP THE JUNCTION

In a surprise announcement, the Highways Agency have decided to bring forward the programme of improvement works planned for M1/M6/A14 interchange at Catthorpe.

Improvements to the junction have been on the cards from the minute the A14 link was opened. Villagers living on the A14 relief roads, especially on the A5199 at Welford, (supported by Husbands Bosworth, North Kilworth and Walcote) have been pressing for changes to reduce the amount of diverted traffic caused by traffic build-ups and subsequent accidents at the poorly designed and congested junction.

The work, which was originally planned to commence in 2015 was put in jeopardy 18 months ago when a government spending review cast a shadow of doubt over the whole project. However, they seem to have had a change of heart and the project is now expected to start later this year.

At present, all traffic movements between the A14 and the motorway system must take place via the local access roundabout arrangement beneath the M1. Additionally, all traffic movements between the M6 and the north-bound M1 must leave and re-enter the motorway system.

A report presented in 2004 stated that the junction layout is grossly inadequate for a route of such importance that carries over 40,000 vehicles per day, with a high proportion of heavy goods vehicles.

The preferred scheme, which was outlined in February 2010, proposes that the existing junction would be replaced by a three level junction, and that local traffic is separated from motorway and A14 traffic.

HOPE SPRINGS?

Do we detect a fresh feel of optimism locally as we cruise into 2013? There's definitely the feeling that some previously latent projects are about to make progress at last. The new school railings are installed and smartening up the old building, work has started on the building plot behind 7 Welford Road, the Gilby Close development on Church Lane is almost finished and the adjacent Languard's site will soon be started. And, lo!, the much-maligned High Street Garage site seems to be progressing at last!

Also on the cards this year is the Exception Site development of 8 'affordable' homes on the edge of the village on Welford Road, and the Kilworth Wharf marina construction.

In Market Harborough the District Council have finally nailed their colours to the mast, after much running around like chickens with no heads, and promised to revamp the Market Hall and the Adam and Eve Street headquarters... and a new hospital gets the thumbs up!

AND THE WINNERS ARE...

Avery big thank you to everyone who entered our Festive Quiz. It was encouraging to receive entries from a number of new entrants this year.

In a very close battle the Gold Medal accolade goes to Jane and Dave Hall, of High Street, who just pipped Mike and Beryl Pennington and Ken and Jennifer Rogers to the winner's podium.

The answers will be published on the Bugle web page shortly, but please let Ralph know if you require a hard copy.

We are pleased to say that we will be able to donate £20 to LOROS as a result of the number of quiz entries and donations received.

POSTBAG

From David Glithro, Church Lane.

I am writing on behalf of the residents of Church Lane who have serious concerns about the welfare of bats in this area. Following the demolition of buildings in the former Begley yard, I observed amongst the brick rubble, several dead/crushed bats. Not wanting a re-occurrence of this on the ex-Languard yard, I contacted Harborough District Council Planning Department and asked if a bat survey had been completed on these premises. Their reply was "NO", but that the demolition contractor should take care, observe, and stop work immediately if bats are evident. What a joke - no contractor is going to stop/lay off men and let a bulldozer stand idle!

We subsequently contacted the Bat Conservation Trust and they replied that it is illegal to damage, destroy or disturb any bats or roosts and, that we are within our rights to request that a bat survey takes place before demolition commences.

HDC Planning Department have a legal obligation to consider whether bats are likely to be affected by demolition work. They inform us that the responsibility is with the owner/developer under the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981. In other words, HDC are washing their hands of this and are passing the buck.

We have written a letter to the builders, Evans, requesting that they organise a bat survey and await their reply.

I would like our concerns to be published in the next issue of the Bosworth Bugle, to make the whole village aware of HDC's failure to carry out their duty to the public, which after all, is what they are paid to do!

From a Grateful Villager,

Please could you acknowledge the sterling work done by our own 'Unsung Hero', Nick Bradshaw, in clearing the pavements of snow and ice along Church Street and Church Lane during the recent 'cold snap'. To my knowledge Nick has been carrying out this thankless task for at least 25 years, so perhaps it is high time we publicly thanked him!

Editor's Note: We hear that some kind soul baked Nick a carrot cake and gave it to him by way of thanks!

DON'T GET CAUGHT OUT!

The old scam, where someone claiming to be from BT phones to say that your service will be cut off unless you pay an overdue bill immediately, is going the rounds again. The caller offers to 'prove' that he is from BT by telling you to hang up and you find that he has disconnected your line. It's a scam... he can hold the line open by not replacing his receiver, because he initiated the call.

He then calls back later, after 'proving' his ability to disconnect and reconnect you... and offers some spurious package of financial treats for you if you could just let him have your bank details.

Hang up immediately!

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

■ Bruntingthorpe Proving Ground has been granted permission to run engines on the ground after an aircraft has completed its landing on the main runway. The airfield has recently been receiving redundant aircraft at a dismantling facility; the aircraft being flown in from storage elsewhere.

■ Plans for a 2-turbine windpower development at Knaptoft have recently been filed with Harborough planners. The scheme, for land near Cottage Farm, Leicester Road, Knaptoft, proposes to site the turbines on farmland adjacent to the A5199.

■ Meanwhile permission to retain the anemometer mast at Sparrow Lodge, Pincet Lane, North Kilworth for a further 12 months has been refused.

A YEAR IN THE LIFE...

The challenge is on! Record and photograph, sketch or paint village life in Husbands Bosworth during 2013. Any village event, any organisation, scenes of everyday life, farming, walking the dog, jogging, going to church, portraits of village personalities, meetings - the list is endless.

CONSERVATIVE ASSOCIATION

The Husbands Bosworth and District Branch of the Harborough Conservative Association will hold their Annual General Meeting on Monday, February 18th at 7.30pm in the Turville Memorial Hall. Everyone welcome.

CRAFT GROUP

Remember, the Craft Group meets in the Village Hall on the second Wednesday of each month 7.30pm to 9.30pm.

The group meets informally in a relaxed atmosphere to spur each other on to great things in the craft world! If you have a craft or pastime that is reasonably portable and would like to escape the distractions of home you will be made most welcome. A small charge to cover hall fees and a cuppa are all it costs. Call Gail on 880413 for more information.

TEST CASE

Learner motorists living locally will soon not need to travel far to take their driving test, following the Driving Standards Agency's new tie-up with car accessory group, Halfords.

Under the new scheme, DSA bases will be set up around the country, working under the umbrella of the Halfords Motor Centres. Examiners will be based at participating centres and the practical element of tests will be conducted from the premises.

The scheme is due to start in the spring, with Halford's Market Harborough branch on Rockingham Road one of the first in the country to open its doors.

SCHOOL REPORT

HUSBANDS BOSWORTH C. of E. PRIMARY SCHOOL

From Louisa Morris, Headteacher

I knew from the second I walked into Husbands Bosworth C of E Primary School that I wanted to be the new Headteacher. The warmth of both the children and staff made me feel instantly at home and an enjoyment for learning buzzed from every classroom.

Between being appointed at the end of October and taking up my post on January 1st, there has been something of a transformation of our school. My predecessor, Mr. Bown, had long campaigned for new fencing around the school and his vision is now almost complete. The additional classroom has also been completed and is now in the process of being furnished ready for use after February half-term.

We are of course already preparing ourselves for our new intake of children in September. If you have not already registered your child for a place at our school it is not too late! We welcome visits to see us in action during the school day. Please call the school to arrange this. So far this term we have enjoyed an Open the Book assembly presented by the local parishioners and are preparing for a reading competition and sports fixtures. 2013 is promising to be exciting and eventful; I look forward to sharing our news with you in the next edition.

Despite this photograph being taken in the very heart of the village, the scene is unrecognisable today... One wonders what today's planners would think of the signage that adorned Mather's Garage in the 1920s! The garage stood on the corner of Bell Lane and High Street. The 'picturesque' thatched cottage would surely be 'listed' today but was demolished in the early 1960s to make way for a car showroom forecourt. In the left background is the roof of the workshops of Moreton Wells Woodyard, where Wells Close is today.

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Report of the Parish Council Meeting held on Tuesday, December 4th 2012.

Five Council members, District Councillor Brian Smith, PCSO Ray Wells and one member of the public were present.

Visitors' Questions

■ Council invited David Bell, from Harborough Medical Centre, to address the meeting. Mr. Bell outlined proposals for developing the doctors' surgery and pharmacy in the village. He explained that the surgery would be run in conjunction with Harborough Medical Centre and plans would be drawn up to expand facilities in the village in the near future. Council heard that the surgery now served over 4,000 patients and there was a need for more consulting room space. Moving to a larger site within the village may be necessary.

■ PCSO Wells addressed the meeting and discussed local crime issues. Two thefts from vehicles had been reported in recent months and one incident of forced entry. Patrols had been dropping in at the Millennium Wood site but no further incidents had been noted there. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Matters Arising

■ Members discussed the overgrown hedge on the School Lane bridle path. It was difficult to ascertain who was the owner of the hedge but Council noted that it had now been cut back.

■ Clerk is seeking quotes for the extra mowing work on the Playing Field.

Cemetery

■ Some temporary flooding had been noted in the cemetery extension but this had subsided quickly after the rain had stopped.

■ It was agreed to hold a site meeting in the near future to discuss the proposed renovation work needed on the Chapel of Rest.

Playing Field & Play Area

■ Following discussions on site with the Scout group chairman, Council agreed to obtain quotes for changing the gate layout between the Scout Hut car park and the lower playing field area and resurfacing work on the car park itself.

Accounts

■ Members agreed to adopt the Precept request for 2013-14, as presented.

Planning & Correspondence

■ It was agreed to consult on the suitability of employing the Community Service to carry out work in the village.

■ Clerk was asked to follow up with the relevant agency, matters concerning the leaning roadside wall and encroaching hedge on Green Lane.

The next meeting of the Parish Council will be on Tuesday, February 5th at 7.45pm in the Committee Room of the Village Hall.

DISTRICT COUNCIL NEWS

Whilst work to refurbish the District Council Headquarters in Adam and Eve Street is being carried out core council services and the library will operate from Miller's House on Roman Way. During the redevelopment Council and planning meetings will take place in the Three Swans Hotel in Market Harborough. All existing contact details, e-mail and telephone numbers remain the same as before.

For service enquiries contact should, if possible, be made via the website or customer call centre to help avoid unnecessary waiting at Miller's House and free up time and space for the customer services walk-in facility to continue.

When completed, the revamped Harborough District Council headquarters will have improved public access to council services and better amenities for Harborough Museum and the Library. The council will also generate income by leasing some of the space for office and retail use.

CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church, Methodist Chapel & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

Message from Canon Brian Davis.

WHERE ARE THE CHILDREN?

We have a lively All Age Worship Service in the Parish Church every second Sunday at 11.00am - the only problem is a lack of children! Those who do come obviously enjoy it. I know there are lots of young families in the village. If you are a young family, why not make a date with us - our next one is February 10th. But I must stress this service is for all ages - young, middle-aged... and old! I take the service at the moment (and I am no spring chicken!) - music is provided by myself on keyboard and friends on guitar. The service is kept under the hour, and is followed by refreshments (including delicious home made cakes!) and is a great opportunity to meet other people from the village and perhaps make new friends. Do come along, bring the family and see what we mean!

ASH WEDNESDAY

There will be a special Ash Wednesday service with communion at All Saints, Husbands Bosworth on Wednesday, February 13th at 7.00pm. The service will be led by Canon Brian Davis.

THANKS

The organisers of All Saints Church 2012 Christmas Festival would like to thank everyone who was involved in any way. From making cakes, soups, etc. to serving, stewarding, playing music and coming along to see the exhibits - which, as always were a delight. We all wondered how people not only come up with the ideas for such wonderful exhibits, but are also able to produce them. We especially thank you! This event is our main fundraiser for the church during the year and in all about £1,600 was raised. So, get your thinking caps on for Christmas Festival 2013... you have been warned!
