

MARSTON VILLAGERS KICK UP A STINK

Proposals to site a food waste disposal unit at Pebble Hall Farm, near Theddingworth, have met with opposition from local residents. Members of Marston Trussell Parish Meeting have voiced their objections, claiming that the scheme, if it should go ahead, would result in yet further industrialisation of the site and nuisance to surrounding communities.

They claim that the operations carried out at the site have progressively developed over the years that it has been operating, resulting in a situation that is now out of character in the rural surroundings.

Objectors have also focused on the transport and storage of the raw waste material and the environmental impact that the scheme would have on local residents. They cite a history of poor management at the site, including a fire which burnt out of control for five weeks, the littering of local roads with insecurely transported by-products, dust and smells polluting the air and the noise of plant operating at the site.

At a recent public meeting the promoters of the scheme outlined their plans. They say that the scheme would produce bio-fuels as a renewable energy source from the waste, which would be processed, initially, off site and returned to run electricity generators feeding into the National Grid. Exhaust from the generator units would be vented via a 17m high smoke stack. Additional by-products would include recyclable packaging waste and dried agricultural fertiliser. The proposals tabled include provision for an additional 40,000 tonnes a year over existing permission but point out that since the original matter is high in moisture only a minimal amount of dry, processed and inert waste from the facility, mostly as agricultural fertiliser, would leave the site.

The site is located in Marston Trussell parish and the proposals will be considered by Daventry District Council. (Application reference: DA2013/0489)

Permission was granted in June 2008 for a smaller electricity generating plant with a capacity of 25,000 tonnes capacity, which, subsequently, was not implemented.

THIEF CALL

Living here in sleepy Bosworth, with thankfully little criminal activity, we are perhaps lulled into a false sense of security. During the recent spell of warm nights it has been tempting to leave windows open for ventilation. However, for one village family a small ground-floor window left open was all an opportunist thief needed to let himself into their home.

The incident happened in the early hours of the morning, whilst the family were asleep upstairs and the thief stole all the keys he could find and drove away in one of the family's cars. The family were obviously shaken by the crime, and the ease with which it was carried out. (The family praise the police for their considerate handling of the incident.) It's a salutary tale for all of us, and the family have asked us to highlight this case in the hope that it may avert any similar incidents locally. They remind us that we should lock all windows and keep keys in a secure place, especially at night.

The opportunist thief will go where the pickings are easy - don't make it easy for them...

CONKED OUT

Please come along and support our Village Conker and Welly-Wanging Championship, which will be held on the Village playing field from 10.30am on Sunday, September 29th. Join in the competition, watch or just meet your friends and soak up the atmosphere. There will be a small range of trade stalls, games and refreshments and we hope to be entertained by members of the South Leicestershire Ukulele Band and a team of Morris Men. Pre-registration for the conker competition would help, but the welly-wanging can be entered on the day.

Cancer Research will be the main beneficiary this year but we will also be supporting various village amenities. Offers of help would be welcome, as would donations of books/CDs/jigsaws etc., (Before the event please).

Please contact either Sue on 881251 or Ralph on 880526 for further details.

POSTBAG

From Carole and Trevor Turner, Hunters Close.

I would like to add our names to the letter in last months Bugle from Bob Carstairs. We also have no objections to the roadside wall at Bosworth House. We would like to congratulate the owners for their continuing work to improve the property. However we feel that the members of the Parish Council should pay more attention to certain tenants at Cheney Court. There are at least eight wheeled bins left permanently on the pavement on Bell Lane, with no attempt to move them! Surely they are far more unsightly and a hazard to pedestrians with wheelchairs and pushchairs?

From John Tallis, Highcroft

I am concerned that villagers will have to endure another seven years of quarrying traffic with all the associated problems. It seems that "extensions" are an automatic element of the planning systemonce a quarry always a quarry. Can anything be done?

BYGONE BOSWORTH

Images from the Historical Society's Archive Collection

At first glance this picture of the village's Welford Road Cemetery is a familiar scene. However, on closer study it is evident that something isn't quite right. The clue is that the building that you see is no longer there! It is in fact two Chapels of Rest that were specified when the cemetery was built in 1858. The cemetery was built to serve all sections of the community and it was felt that two chapels would be necessary; one to serve the Conformists and the other for Nonconformists. The chapels fell into disuse and were demolished sometime around 1960. It is interesting to note that the nearer chapel carries a cross finial on its gable whereas the far one sports a bland stump!

The building that we can see today in the cemetery was the open-bay loggia, just out of shot in our picture, which linked the two chapels.

Last month's picture of the workman at the top of the church spire elicited a response from former villager, Alana Burton. Alana tells us that whilst compiling the Historical Society's early Bygone Bosworth journals she was told that the manager of the Co-op shop had shot the weathercock and also that an old lady had once climbed the spire. She wonders if anyone else remembers these stories.

Ken and Margaret Underwood of Church Street recall workmen replacing the lightning conductor about 25 years ago, using ladders strapped to the spire in a similar fashion.

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Report of the Parish Council Meeting held on Tuesday, August 6th 2013.

Five Council members and no members of the public were present. Apologies were received from District Councillor Brian Smith and Parish Councillor Melvyn Forman.

Visitors Questions

■No visitors attended the meeting but Council had received a letter relating to Bosworth House wall from a member of the public which was discussed at length. A reply will be issued.

Matters Arising

■The skatepark 'Driveway' apparatus has been removed for safety reasons following damage caused by vandalism. Council is considering quotes for replacement.

■Some members of the public were still reporting Broadband service problems.

■Council agreed to pay an honorarium to Mr. Smith for data collecting and technical help relating to the Speed Indicator Device.

■Mrs. O'Connor thanked the Parish Council for their generous donation towards the Causeway Charity trip to the Shuttlewood-Clarke Foundation.

Cemetery

■Clerk was asked to contact the grass cutting contractor regarding the overgrown margins around the cemetery. Clerk was asked to arrange a site meeting with the contractor as there were a number of issues arising from the mowing contract.

Playing Field & Play Area

■The RoSPA inspection of the Play Area equipment had been completed and no outstanding safety issues were identified.

Allotments

■Councillors had visited site prior to the meeting. It was noted that there were presently four vacant allotments. These had been sprayed off to control weeds. Council felt that the site generally looked a bit run down and unkempt. It was decided to call a meeting with allotment-holders to see what improvements could be made.

Bosworth Festival

■Council members agreed the Festival had been a great success, taking in excess of £6000. Monies have now been distributed to local and national charities.

Planning & Correspondence

■A planning application for the installation of a combined waste-food processing and power generation unit at Pebble Hall Farm was discussed at length. A letter had been received from Marston Trussell Parish Meeting seeking support for their opposition to the application. It was agreed that Council should, if possible, be represented at a fact-finding meeting to be called shortly by Marston Trussell Parish Meeting.

Any Other Business

■The steep gradient of the new footway across the access to the new development at the rear of 7 Welford Road was discussed. Clerk was asked to bring the matter to the attention of Highways.

■Council noted that the Butt Lane bridle path crossing is a mess again, making pedestrian passage a problem. Brian Smith would be asked to liaise with Lafarge again to resolve this continuing problem.

Next meeting

The next meeting of Husbands Bosworth Parish Council will be at 7.45pm on Tuesday, September 3rd in the Committee Room of the Village Hall.

CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church, Methodist Chapel & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

Letter from The Rectory

*The farmer will never be happy again,
He carries his heart in his boots.
For either the rain is destroying his grain,
Or the drought is destroying his roots.....*

How do we feel about harvest? If we are stuck behind a tractor on a road it is not easy to overtake on, we probably feel quite impatient. If the tractor in the field next to our house is working late at night and the noise and the lights are keeping us awake, we may not be too pleased. If the dust kicked up by the process of harvesting increases our allergies or causes the corn bugs to cover our washing we might be fed up.

Or we may really enjoy watching the fields around us changing as the combines do their job. A harvested field can be a beautiful sight - quintessentially English. If the harvest is not as good a yield as we hoped for we may feel anxious about where the income is coming from, or maybe there is a bumper crop in fields, allotments and gardens and things look good for the coming year.

As we come into the harvest festival season we have an opportunity in our Harvest Thanksgiving Services to give God thanks for giving us the harvest, or to place before him our anxieties if things were not as good as we hoped they would be; and also to remember those for whom the harvest has not come at all.

All are most welcome to come along to our Harvest Thanksgiving Service at All Saints Church on Sunday, September 8th at 11.00am. Liz
