

ALL CONKERING HEROES

The Conker's team would like to thank all the generous people who helped in any way towards our Conker & Welly Wanging Championships. The sun shone all day long and we were so pleased to see such a good level of attendance and that everyone appeared to be enjoying themselves.

The event was financially successful and we have been able to send donations of £600 each to our two main charities, which were Breast Cancer Research and Prostate Cancer Research, in addition to supporting a number of worthy causes within the village.

The Conker Championship winners were:

Team: A Big Pair of Conkers
Men: James Davis
Ladies: Meg Kedie
Children 9 to 12yrs: Seb Fernandes
Children 6 to 8yrs: Tobias Kettell

The Welly Wanging Winners were:

POSTBAG

From Theresa Phillips, Oaktree Cottage, Church Lane

I was interested to read the article in last month's Bugle about the oak tree on the lower green. I have it on very good authority that it is a Coronation Oak, planted in 1902 for the coronation of Edward VII.

From Jennifer Rogers, Highcroft

Welford Watercolourists would like to thank all those who supported our Annual Exhibition in October. It was a most successful weekend and we sold lots of original paintings and cards. As usual the refreshments were very popular. As a result we are able to send £300 to LOROS.

From Carole Clarke, Berridges Lane

This Halloween my grand-children asked if I would take them around the village trick and treating. Normally we put our pumpkin and ghost in the window and wait for the door bell to ring non-stop for treats. I would like to say a huge thank you to all the villagers who decorated their houses with all sorts of scary things. There were cauldrons of cold custard, apple bobbing, weird food tastings, scary music and smoke machines. The pumpkin carvings were brilliant, with each one being very different. After two hours I took three very tired children home after a great Halloween.

From Heather O'Connor, Fernie Court

I will be holding a wreath making session for children at The Catering Corner on Saturday, December 12th from 10.00am. Cost £5 per wreath. Contact Lyndsey at The Catering Corner.

DARK NIGHTS WARNING

Some timely advice for your protection for the dark nights

■ Check security lights and their operation

■ If your car is parked outside overnight try to park in well-lit areas where there is passing pedestrian traffic

■ If you go out at night, set a timer-controlled light. If you set only one light leave doors open so that it can be seen from more than one side of the house

■ Lock side gates, even when you are at home

Leicestershire Police are warning motorists of a spate of fuel thefts around the county during recent weeks. In all cases cars have been targeted whilst parked overnight and have had their fuel tanks punctured and fuel drained out.

Please be extra vigilant and report any suspicious activity, especially overnight or in the early hours of the morning.

BOSWORTH IN FOCUS

A ROUND-UP OF LOCAL NEWS

SLOW ROAD...

Here at Bugle HQ we like to keep our ears close to the ground where local matters are concerned... and endeavour to pass on the intelligence that we gather for the benefit of the community.

So, a little bird tells us that the Road Safety Camera in North Kilworth has recently been re-activated and is back in business nobbling motorists who are in too much of a hurry to get away from the place.

QUARRY NEWS

At a recent Quarry Liaison meeting members heard that work is progressing on the eastern site, off Butt Lane, with permission for a further extension eastwards likely to be sought in the near future. It was noted that the Butt Lane crossing was generally cleaned after each day's operations but the Quarry Manager agreed to reinforce the importance of regularly maintaining a clean surface. Electric fence signs had been installed adjacent to the crossing following a request put forward at the last meeting.

The recent up-turn in the construction industry has taken the building supplies industry by surprise but the quarry is now back to pre-depression tonnages on aggregate supply and the re-opened landfill site is currently taking approximately 8,000 tonnes per month. Much of the landfill material was currently coming from big developments in Leicester and Market Harborough.

Restoration of the western site off the A5199 is currently under way as the working face withdraws. The site is destined to be reprofiled to lower levels, with a number of water bodies and natural habitats incorporated into the final restoration. The projected date for completion of restoration on this site is December 2017.

Problems of road soiling on Welford Road were discussed. The meeting heard that the wheel-washing plant was now working and a roadsweeper was contracted to sweep twice daily. The Quarry Manager again urged villagers to contact the quarry at any time if any problems arose.

WILD ABOUT BOSWORTH

English holly (Ilex aquifolium)

As the festive season approaches, we'll begin to see holly wreaths adorning doors around the village. Wreaths have a long history; from the Persian Empire, where they symbolised success, to the Olympic Games in Greece, where they crowned the victors, and on to Rome where officials wore laurel wreaths.

Holly occupies a special place in spiritual history. For pagans, its evergreen leaves were a promise of spring and rebirth through the dark winter months. It was a sacred plant of the Roman god Saturn, and sprigs were given as tokens to friends during their winter festival - Saturnalia. In Christianity, the holly wreath symbolises the unending circle of life and Jesus's crown of thorns. Nowadays, the Christmas wreath has developed into a sign of welcome and an emblem of caring, giving, and the gathering of loved ones.

Holly trees are dioecious - that's a posh word meaning they are either male or female. When they are in flower, it takes an expert to tell the difference. Male flowers have more prominent stamens and, of course, it's the females that bear fruit. At the eastern entrance to Brickfield Spinney there are a couple of female plants, heavy with berries.

Except that holly berries are not berries! They are drupes (stone fruits), like plums, cherries and olives.

One final piece of folklore... Holly was considered to be a male plant and ivy, female. A tradition says that whichever one was brought into the home first on Christmas Eve would determine whether it would be the man or woman of the household who would rule for the coming year!

LEAVES OF HOPE

Our Leaves of Hope (LoH) party left Gatwick at the end of October 2015 and landed in Minsk in 1955. Grey, utilitarian 'soviet' tower blocks, everything strictly brutalist, ugly and run down; the people gloomy, unsmiling, pessimistic.

The orphanage was no different but it was clean and functional, in reasonable repair, partly due to LoH, who have provided new windows, having found the children pillow-less because they were being used to block out the frigid Belarus winter draughts.

There are 56 children, aged 3 to 6, predominantly boys, as girls are 'easier' to adopt or foster. There are many health and learning issues, some due to foetal alcohol syndrome; three are HIV positive. Eyesight and speech difficulties are common. But they are clean and fed an adequate, if monotonous diet. The staff have limited resources; boys dressed in girls clothes for want of anything else. What they cannot do, because of time constraints or culture, is give affection to the kids who seem to crave it without truly knowing how to react to something like a cuddle.

We brought fruit with us as we knew they never saw any. The children were thrilled, and the little boy I was with kissed my hand, but he then gave me the first piece of his fruit, which was heart-rending. Fortunately I smuggled it back onto his plate. The kids are disciplined, regimented, quiet and solemn - at least until we got them playing or doing crafts, when they became 'normal'! They never leave the orphanage grounds until they move to the next, older facility and so on. All their minders are female and the LoH men fascinated them. They are receiving basic 3R lessons but at some point they will leave this closed society, to do what? We took and left craft supplies, which delighted them and showed their talents once they had been coaxed into experimenting. For example, sticky-back tape was a mystery and Play-Doh brought a totally amazed reaction. Once started, they quickly learnt how to play (and learn), but without LoH there has the playing stopped? Overall this was a totally worthwhile, fantastic but emotionally draining experience, which I will never forget. I will always help LoH however I can and try to get others to support them. When we re-entered our own world flying from Belarus, we saw children who were spoilt brats. I will never forget the orphans we met, they were totally unspoilt because they had and expected nothing. My sincerest thanks on their behalf to all the Bosworth residents who helped LoH brighten their lives, if only temporarily. Suzie Dhillon

BYGONE BOSWORTH

Images from the Historical Society's Archive Collection

This two-seater Sopwith 1½ Strutter was an early casualty of flying at Husbands Bosworth when it came down near the village in 1917. The aircraft carries its Royal Flying Corps serial number, A8233 and was one of eight similar aeroplanes attached to 37 Home Defence Squadron, flying from the former Royal Naval Air Service landing ground at Rochford in Essex. The machine was assigned to 'C' Flight.

On July 7th 1917, A8233, under the command of Lt. Lessel Finer Hutcheon, with observer Sgt. Macdonald, was one of almost 100 aeroplanes dispatched to repulse a stream of 22 German Gotha bombers. The Squadron History relates that the British force, which was drawn from numerous bases in the south of England lacked cohesion, in part due to old rivalries between the military and naval detachments. At any rate the disparate force failed to make any great impact on the Hun raid, which proceeded to focus its attentions on the coastal resort of Margate before rendering considerable damage on the City of London. On this occasion A8233 was airborne from 09.34hrs to 11.25hrs.

Quite what A8233 was doing in Husbands Bosworth at the time of this accident is unclear. Although the Squadron History notes a number of Zeppelin raids over the Midland counties later in 1917 and into 1918, the aeroplanes that were recorded as being dispatched to deal with these incidents were usually the more capable Royal Aircraft Factory B.E.2c. Perhaps A8233 had, by this time, been seconded to the newly formed 38 Squadron, which was using landing grounds in the east of Leicestershire and Lincolnshire.

In our picture the propeller appears to have been removed, presumably having been damaged by the heavy landing, the undercarriage having collapsed. Note that the aircraft has been tethered to the ground, fore and aft - perhaps to prevent the village boys carrying it off!

The Craft Group meets on the second Wednesday of each month in the Committee Room of the Village Hall.

If you have a craft or pastime that is reasonably portable and would like to escape the distractions of home-life for a while why not wander down to the Village Hall and exchange ideas with likeminded crafty folk? The meetings are informal and a small charge to cover hall hire and refreshments is paid on a per session basis. Call Gail on 880413 for more information.

Paddy and his wife are lying in bed one the night and the neighbour's dog was barking continuously for 40 minutes.

"I've had enough of this," says Paddy, and storms downstairs.

Five minutes later he comes back upstairs. "The dog's still barking", says his wife.

"I know," says Paddy, "but I've put it in our garden - let's see how they like it!"

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Report of the Parish Council Meeting held on Tuesday, November 3rd 2015.

Four Council members and PCSO Peter Willson were present.

Apologies were received from Mrs. Fisher.

Visitors' Questions

■ The Chairman invited PCSO Willson to address the meeting.

PCSO Willson agreed to contact the District Council again regarding the poor road markings on Welford Road and the failed street lighting. He noted that the vandal damage to the pavilion had been logged onto the police system and patrols had called in when passing.

He noted that an increase in house burglaries had been evident in the Lutterworth area and urged householders to ensure their homes were lit and secured when unoccupied at night. He reminded the meeting that the non-emergency 101 line was now fully operational for general enquiries and to report crime that had occurred. Crime in progress should still be reported on 999.

PCSO Willson informed the meeting that the old police station in Lutterworth had been sold and was likely to be converted into a Wetherspoons pub. A police base would be maintained in Lutterworth but no decision had been made yet as to where this would be.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Matters Arising

■ Council discussed the Little Free Library scheme and Clerk was asked to seek quotes for constructing a suitable cabinet. It was confirmed that planning permission wouldn't be needed to site the cabinet on the Old Green.

■ The meeting discussed the overgrown hedge on School Lane. Although it was felt to be a Highways issue, Clerk was asked in the first instance to contact the homeowners and point out that pedestrian access along the footway was restricted.

Cemetery

■ Council noted that the pathways were overgrown. Clerk was asked to ascertain if the contractors had sprayed the pathways.

■ The meeting discussed at length a request for a memorial on which Council felt that the wording was inappropriate. Clerk was asked to refer Council's concerns back to the undertakers.

Playing Field & Play Area

■ It was noted that the Tennis Club lease had expired. It was also noted that the ground rent agreement on the Scout HQ was due for renewal in 2016.

■ Clerk was asked to contact Highways to discuss the installation of bollards on the grass verge outside the carpark entrance.

Allotments

■ Clerk was asked to contact the tenants of two overgrown plots to remind them that they should trim back uncultivated areas.

Traffic Issues

■ Nothing to discuss

Broadband

■ Council noted that the second cabinet was now installed and was being wired. Full commissioning would take about 6 weeks. It was expected that the service providers would contact subscribers once the service was 'live'.

Any Other Business

■ Concerns were raised about householders dumping rubbish in the water-course bordering the playing field. Clerk was asked to write to the residents of the Welford Road homes that backed onto the playing field about their responsibility to maintain the water-course and remind them that no right of access existed onto the playing field.

■ Council noted that the car-parking area at the Millennium Wood had been resurfaced with materials and labour donated by villagers.

■ It was noted that the grass-cutting contract was to be renewed for the 2016 season.

■ Council authorised the servicing of the parish strimmer and mower and approved the purchase of a second mower.

The next meeting of the Parish Council will be on Tuesday, December 1st at 7.45pm in the Committee Room of the Village Hall.

NOTE: There will be no Parish Council meeting in January.

CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church, Methodist Chapel & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

From the Rectory

As we once again approach the season of 'Peace on earth and goodwill to all people' the recent events in our world remind us that we are very far from that being the case. There are people, and organisations, in our world who seek to bring terror, violence and fear to ordinary people. We see pictures of sorrow and grief and hear those who witnessed recent events in Paris and other places around the world, seeing things they never thought to see, with memories they would rather not have.

Yet alongside the horror we also see the compassion - the comfort offered to those who grieve, the solidarity shown around the world in lighting buildings with the French colours, those who have travelled to Paris to stand with those people who have suffered. In a world which sometimes seems very dark, there are bright flashes of blinding light, and a very deep undercurrent of love and goodness which binds humanity together. We can see this in so many different places in our world, like when a community rallies round to support a family with illness or bereavement with meals or other practical support; when unkind words are spoken and others seek to redress the balance. We see the kindness and goodness of people in what they do, the proof is in their actions and our actions are a matter of choice, we can all choose to act lovingly given the opportunity.

At the start of our Advent Season, after the festivity of our Christmas Tree Festival, we shall be holding a Peace Vigil, Tuesday December 1st, 2.30pm - 6.30pm at All Saints Church, giving an opportunity for us to remember those who suffer unnecessarily by violent hands, and to pray for peace in our world. All are invited to drop in, light a candle or lay a flower, say a prayer or read a poem, or just sit a while. Martin Luther King, Jnr said, 'Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate, only love can do that.' Let's seek light in our lives and in our world, let's allow our love to grow and be seen, that the darkness and hatred will be pushed back, that peace on earth and goodwill to all people may become established. Praying you will be blessed with light and love this Christmas. Liz
