

QUESTIONNAIRE UPDATE

Initial reports suggest that the response to the Neighbourhood Plan Questionnaire has been extremely positive. As this issue of the Bugle goes to press it looks as if at least 300 paper returns and 200 on-line returns have been received.

In all, a total of around 850 copies were distributed to about 480 households across the parish. So, the return represents a significant proportion of the population of the parish and the results should therefore show a fair indication of the thoughts and aspirations of the community.

Our Neighbourhood Plan, once drafted and accepted, will be an important legal document - the 'blueprint' for the community's future development, which we must consult whenever important decisions within the parish are to be made. It will draw a new building line around the village core and protect aspects of the community that we have shown we would like preserved and direct development to areas that we have shown we favour.

The Questionnaire is an important part of the community's 'hands-on' involvement in the Plan's creation. The Advisory Committee would like to take this opportunity to thank the 32 stalwart villagers who undertook to distribute and collect the questionnaire, and especially to thank everyone who filled in the form and participated. THANK YOU.

QUIZZICAL OUTCOME

Another lively contest saw fifteen village groups battle for the honour of lifting the coveted trophy in the Annual Village Hall Quiz in February.

A fine and fair competition, competently led by last year's winning team, 'The Village Idiots', eventually weeded out the village wheat from the village chaff to provide a worthy winner. After a long and fierce contest, which saw the lead traded briskly in the latter stages, quiz stalwarts and past masters, 'The Strife of Brian' finally conceded the title to 'Let's Get Quizzical' by a mere four points. The honour of hosting next year's quiz now passes to the winning team. In the interests of fairness the Bugle notes that 'We Eat Porkpies' and 'Beyond the Fringe' gamely propped up the lower end of the competition!

LEAD THEFTS

Look out there's a bunch of thieves about - again... Yep, the lead thieves are back in operation in our area.

Close to home, Theddingworth was visited for the third time and more lead removed. Churches at Ashby Magna and Peatling Parva have been attacked recently, and now we hear that St. Peter's parish church at Arnesby, has also been the focus of this unwelcome attention.

Our own All Saints church was targeted in November 2015 when lead was stolen from the north aisle roof, resulting in a mammoth fundraising effort to raise the £20,000 for replacement.

With the thieves back in business locally, we need to be vigilant and report any suspicious activity to the police, especially anyone taking particular interest in the church.

CALLING FOUL

Following on from our 'blitz' on dog-fouling in the February Bugle we now hear of a scheme set up by villagers in a Cambridgeshire village to try to tackle the problem on their doorstep. In a novel approach to the problem, the residents of Wimblington have come up with a "poo-shaming" social media map, dubbed 'Doodoowatch', in a bid to stamp out the menace.

The scheme allows locals to plot dog fouling hot-spots on an interactive map, which is posted on-line. As well as highlighting problem areas, users can also upload photos of particularly offensive deposits to add emphasis to their gripes. It is hoped that the scheme will 'shame' socially irresponsible dog walkers into changing their habits and encourage them to pick up after their pets. The map will also highlight areas where villagers can avoid the menace and where it is safer to walk.

The scheme coordinators plan to monitor the scheme to see if the public posts result in fewer dog poop incidents in the village.

Fouling follow-up... in the wake of the storm of comments in the February Bugle and a poster campaign by a village 'activist', the problem seemed to ease. Recently however, incidents, especially overnight deposits, have started to creep back...

ELVIS LIVES...

Leadng tribute artist, Mick Vegas, will be bringing the sound of ELVIS to Bosworth Village Hall on Saturday, April 21st.

BUGLE POSTBAG

From Robert Constable-Maxwell, Bosworth Hall

It is with sadness that I report that the President of our local British Legion branch for the past 7 or 8 years, Betty Greenfield died in February. Her late husband, Neil, who had served in the Grenadier Guards, was also a stalwart member of our Branch.

From The Gliding Centre

Keep these dates free - Saturday, June 23rd and Sunday, 24th when we will be hosting a Family and Community Fun Weekend, complete with live music, dancing and children's entertainment. Air experience flights will be on offer during the event.

Vintage aircraft, classic cars and bikes will be on display and in the evening there will be a grand Firework Display. The Club is offering stall space for local community fund-raising and charity groups. Call the Office on 01858 880521 or email: office@theglidingcentre.co.uk

From Linda Lawton, Highcroft

A big thank you to everyone who supported my coffee morning on Saturday 4th March in aid of the Brain Tumour Charity. I'm very grateful to everyone for turning out in the snowy weather to drink coffee and eat cake. Thanks to my merry band of helpers and for the donations of cakes and raffle prizes. We raised the magnificent sum of £683.

WELFORD ACTION GROUP NEWS

At the recent meeting members noted concerns that the Truck Stop service area at Portly Ford may inadvertently be encouraging HGV traffic to use the A5199.

The group continues to chase the operators of Magna Park and Bruntingthorpe with regard to routing procedures for HGV traffic. It was noted that any new Magna Park developments would be likely to include detailed and enforceable traffic management plans. WAG has requested permission to join Magna Park Community Liaison Group in order to further press their case on local HGV movements.

The on-going works to up-grade the M1 to 'smart motorway' status were causing overnight traffic problems along the A5199, much of which stemmed from poor signing and advance notices. WAG were liaising with Highways England on a regular basis in regard to this matter.

Welford Action Group (WAG) meets regularly to discuss concerns relating to local traffic matters along the A5199 corridor. Husbands Bosworth is represented on the group.

100g fresh brown breadcrumbs

150g crushed digestive biscuits

100g soft brown sugar

1 teaspoon ground cinnamon

¼ teaspoon grated nutmeg

Grated zest of 1 lemon

Grated zest of 1 orange

600g cooked rhubarb (Cut into pieces, scatter with sugar and splash of water and simmer gently for approx 8-10 minutes until soft)

WILD ABOUT BOSWORTH

Wild Garlic or Ramsons - Allium Ursinum

Take a walk through Brickfield Spinney and you'll discover swathes of wild garlic growing towards the eastern edge of the wood. Its spear-shaped leaves form a vivid green carpet which flourishes until the upper canopy of leaves arrives. From April to June it sprouts sparkling white inflorescences, which provide a welcome food source for pollinators.

The presence of wild garlic indicates the woodland has been around for a long time. Our spinney is on a map from the 1880s and was probably established woodland long before then.

Wild garlic is edible and, though it has a similar smell to everyday garlic, it has a mellow, sweeter flavour. The leaves, bulbs and flowers all have culinary uses. The leaves, which are best harvested before the flowers appear, can be blitzed with walnuts, olive oil and Parmesan to make a delicious pesto.

Here's a recipe for a tasty spring soup: Fry an onion until translucent and add a finely chopped potato. After 5 minutes, add a bay leaf and 500ml of vegetable or chicken stock. Simmer for about 10 minutes, until the potato is cooked. Add a bunch of wild garlic leaves and cook for NO MORE than two minutes. Remove the bay leaf, season, blitz and enjoy. The florets of wild garlic; the white umbels, can be used as an attractive garlicky garnish to a salad and savoury dishes.

This has been more of a cookery article than a piece on wildlife. Perhaps because the bulbs are a much-loved food of wild boar and bears, and neither of these have been seen in the spinney recently. However, it explains the scientific name, Allium Ursinum, which is 'Bear Leek'.

SCOUTING IN BOSWORTH

1st Kilworth Scout Group recently participated in Scouting's annual census. We have over 60 Beavers, Cubs, and Scouts and room for more. Another wonderful fact that we learned recently is that our group is 105 years old, beginning in May 1913 in North Kilworth. The necker was originally orange and green, then changed to yellow in 1959 and finally to royal blue with yellow and purple trim last year.

If your child would like to be a part of Scouting, likes playing games, learning skills such as first aid, raft-building, cooking outdoors, going camping and having a great time, then please contact us. Meetings are held at the Scout Hut: Beavers (6 - 8 years old) meet on Thursday evenings, 6.00pm to 7.00pm; Cubs (8 - 10½ years old) meet on Wednesday evenings, 6.30pm to 7.50pm; and Scouts (10½ - 14 years old) meet on Wednesday evenings 8.00pm to 9.15pm. We are also looking for adult volunteers. If you can help us with skills, time, materials or fund-raising then please get in touch with either: cnlauder@gmail.com or our chair: Norman_Byrd@hotmail.com.

SCHOOL REPORT

HUSBANDS BOSWORTH C. of E. PRIMARY SCHOOL Head Teacher Alan Eathorne

As the Spring Term draws to an end, the school continues to be a thriving hub of learning. One of our long-standing staff, Janet Russ, will be leaving us at Easter. For over sixteen years she has worked at the school and I am sure many of you may have been taught by her. She has played a huge part in the life of the school and has always supported the children in a professional, caring and nurturing manner - she will be missed by us all.

The school has had some sporting success recently. The basketball team managed to progress from the local tournament and played in the area finals where they finished a creditable 5th. Our swimming team has also done well as they came second against teams from other small schools from the area.

As always, I would like to share with you some of our fantastic writing, this time from Class 4:

Suddenly I heard footsteps, they were definitely footsteps, echoing through the whole house. I tiptoed down the hallway to the staircase. Trailing my hand along the banister: splinters pierced my skin... Ben

My eyes adjusted to the darkness. Cobwebs were suspended on the ceiling. I trailed my hand across the wall, something cold and metallic stopped me in my tracks.... Tobias

improving literacy • increasing life chances

School Readers is a charity that helps with children readers in schools in the Lutterworth area, including Husbands Bosworth Primary School and are looking for more volunteers to help in this important role. Can you spare an hour or two a week to listen to children read in a local primary school?

Reading time for many children at home and at school is often insufficient and according to Government statistics, one in four children are now leaving primary school unable to read to the expected standard. This can have a lifelong consequence.

As a volunteer group Schoolreaders is flexible and aims to match your availability to an appropriate, local school. No qualifications are necessary, just a good command of spoken and written English and a commitment of one year is requested. Our volunteers find the scheme incredibly rewarding, knowing that a few hours helping a child learn to read each week can have such a great impact on their life chances.

Please visit the website www.schoolreaders.org to join or for more information call 01234 924111.

BYGONE BOSWORTH

Images from the Historical Society's Archive Collection

How well do you know Husbands Bosworth? Do you know where this topiary hedge is to be found? More to the point, do you know what it depicts?

Many drivers and passers by will no doubt have casually noted the smartly trimmed box hedge that borders Berridges Lane. But, how many have looked more closely and spotted the railway locomotive, that trundles down the road?

The hedge and its 'engineering' is the inspiration of Eddie Stover of Hillcrest Lane, who, having inherited the hedge when he and June moved to the village in the early 1980s, decided to add some extra interest to the feature.

The engine is styled on a classic Southern Region Merchant Navy Class loco, with its distinctive smoke deflectors, and completes a train of tender and four carriages. The added joke is that the train is actually travelling the wrong way down Berridges! At one time the one-way sign, at night, illuminated the firebox.

The Southern loco, stylish for its time, is far from its home territory; the rails that swept through Bosworth on their way from Rugby to Market Harborough, carried more workaday LNWR engines, and finally shut up shop in 1966, victim of Dr. Beeching's economic scalpel.

FEEL THE FUNK..

Last year a group of volunteers hosted an 80s fancy-dress disco in the Village Hall and raised £1,700 for the charity Action for Children.

This year, on Saturday, September 22nd, we are aiming to raise even more money for this wonderful charity with an awesome '70s fancy-dress disco. As the '70s transcends various music genres we expect this event to surpass the fancy dress efforts made last year, even though they were spectacular! (Note: fancy dress is NOT compulsory).

Action for Children is a UK children's charity committed to helping vulnerable and neglected children and young people and their families, throughout the UK. It supports people in areas as diverse as disability respite therapy, foster care, adoption and child neglect.

Tickets sold quickly last year, so if you would like to help us, whether turning up in fancy-dress or supporting us with raffle or auction prizes, then please contact Marc on 880884, or pre-book tickets (before they go on sale in May) by emailing marc.rowley1@btopenworld.com

Come on Bosworth - boogie on down to '70s classics! Resistance is futile, don't be a chump, book now and get ready to feel the funk. Can you dig it?

CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church, Methodist Chapel & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

FROM THE RECTORY

By now you will all have had an opportunity to complete your Questionnaire, which will contribute towards what goes into the Neighbourhood Plan; the plan to shape the future development of our village. It asked for a little bit of information about your history - how long you have lived here, a little bit about your present and what your current situation is. What are your thoughts about the future; what would be acceptable and what would not. It asks the same of the groups and organisations in the village - what is your history, your current activities and your plans.

We all do have history, and all have hopes and dreams of what we would like the future to hold. The same is true for the Christian church, its history goes back to Jesus and his life on earth, his death and resurrection. It was after that the church was born and from that time that it has grown and spread to be a worldwide faith today. It also has a hope - the hope is that what Jesus did back then makes a difference for us all - that he has made a pathway through death into eternal life in his heavenly Father's kingdom and those who choose to do so can follow him there. But it's the present, this moment now, that is the gift that we actually have. The past is behind us and we can't change it. We may be able to influence the future, but it is not yet ours. All we have for sure is now, this present time and our challenge is to live each moment to the full, not to waste the gift we have or to defer engaging with life for some better moment, nor to put off facing the big issues of truth and faith. Even God, when asked by Moses what his name was, called himself 'I am' - not I was or will be, but 'I am' the God of the present moment, who always exists. Our past is in his care and so too are our future hopes, but it is in the 'now' that he meets with us and that we can get to know him today. May I wish you all a joyful Easter and pray you will have courage to live today well.

Liz
