

A DAY TO REMEMBER...

On Thursday, May 8th we will be celebrating the 80th anniversary of VE Day when, as a nation in 1945, we were finally able to show our collective thanks for the end of World War II.

In Husbands Bosworth, the school children will be marking the day with activities remembering the sacrifices that their grand-parents and great grand-parents made to ensure the freedom that we are able to enjoy today.

Later in the day, from 6.30pm, our church bell-ringers will be ringing out a celebratory peal, as was rung so joyously across the country in May 1945.

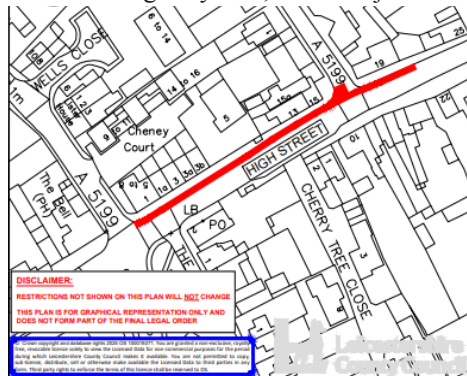

From 8.30pm a special showing of VE Day archive newsreel film in the Sports Pavilion will remind us of how the country celebrated back in the day... Why not dust off and bring along any WWII medals awarded to family members, as a fitting tribute to their part in our futures?

To round off the day, and as part of a nation-wide event, the evening will draw to a close with the lighting of the village beacon on the Playing Field at 9.30pm.

LINE CALL

Work to install double yellow lines on a section of High Street on the eastern carriageway side, from the junction with Bell Lane to the junction with Berridges Lane, is expected to be carried out shortly.

This is not a new instruction, apparently it is a correction of a previous oversight by Leicestershire County Council, going back some time, which has only come to light during a recent review.

Apparently, the existing restriction (No Waiting 8.00am to 6.00pm) signs were revoked some years ago, but the replacement legal order (No Waiting at Any Time) and its related double yellow lines, were never installed.

ELECTION FEVER

Yippee! There's an election coming up... and I'm sure that, like us, you are all sitting on the edges of your seats in anticipation...

For this election, on Thursday, May 1st we will have the opportunity to elect our County Councillor.

Our Polling Station will be in the Village Hall, 7.00am to 10.00pm.

No ID? You can apply for free voter ID. Find out more at electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID or call 0800 328 0280

FACE-TIME

The parish church clock has recently had a bit of a face-lift. Meanwhile, the scaffolding remains whilst work to renovate parts of the mechanism are on-going... In this picture, it is interesting to note the window in the tower, which clearly predates the clock.

CANAL THEATRE

Mikron travelling canal theatre returns on Tuesday, May 27th when the peripatetic company bring Operation Beach Hut to Welford Wharf.

What could be more British than a trip to the seaside, a centuries old tradition with nostalgia and escapism by the bucketful? However, as Holly finds when she arrives in the quaint seaside town of Fiddling-On-Sea, expecting a quiet break - as history ticks on, some places get left behind... Soon, she is plunged into a world of coastal chaos with the summer heat rising and 'Fiddling-On-Sea's Best Beach Hut Competition' in full swing...

Holly realises that there's much more at stake than just a prize for the best beach hut!

Wharf Inn, 7.00pm - 9.00pm

No tickets are required, as a pay-what-you-feel collection will be taken after the show.

BUGLE POSTBAG

From Gary Houston, North Kilworth Sports Club Committee

Heartfelt thanks to Bosworth Quarry from all at North Kilworth Sports Club!

In the spirit of true community collaboration, we would like to extend our thanks to Bosworth Quarry for their generous support of AFC North Kilworth Football Club. Their recent contribution has gone far beyond material help - it is an act of neighbourly kindness that will be felt by generations to come.

Thanks to the quarry, the Club has been able to enhance its facilities, including the installation of a hard-standing areas, ensuring better accessibility for our less-able supporters.

More than just improving a football ground, this is about investing in our youth and strengthening the bonds between local businesses and sporting environments. The children of our communities now have a safer, more inclusive, and more enjoyable space to play, train, and grow together - not just as players, but as teammates and friends. This act of generosity from Bosworth Quarry is a shining example of what can be achieved when local businesses and sporting committees come together.

From all of us at AFC North Kilworth Football Club, and on behalf of the children and families of our local villages who play at South Kilworth Road - thank you.

Together, we build more than facilities - we build community spirit and lasting environments that enable sporting growth.

From Karen Lydiatt, Show Organiser

This year's Husbands Bosworth Horticulture and Craft Show will be on Sunday, August 24th. If you are new to the village this is a great community event, and absolutely anyone can join in, whatever your age or ability...

The Show brings out the best of community spirit, entering, admiring the exhibits, or simply enjoying a cup of tea and a homemade cake, and catching up on village gossip! So now is the time to start planning, planting, and practising your baking, crafting, artistic and floral skills... Don't forget to add the date to your calendar!

Look out for regular updates and reminders. If you would like to help in any way, have any suggestions or questions, please contact me: kide.1962@gmail.com

BOSWORTH IN FOCUS

WILD ABOUT BOSWORTH

Rookery Ruckus...

If you go down in the woods today - down to the village's Millennium Wood, that is... There won't be any bears... However, you will notice, by the raucous overhead cacophony, the constant squabbling and the widely strewn building material littering the boardwalk, that the rooks have returned to the rookery.

Quite what the ruckus is all about, we don't really know. Maybe it's just joie-de-vivre - party atmosphere - happy rooks! Or perhaps it's territorial - Get outta my tree! Rooks do typically mate for life and return to their preferred nesting sites year after year, vying for the highest vantage point.

So, why do rooks live in colonies? A number of birds, especially seabirds form communal nesting sites, partly because it provides them with protection from predators, but also for the social environment. Rooks are especially sociable birds, and nesting in a rookery allows them to more easily share tasks, such as look-outs and the defence of their young.

On the Guinness superlatives scale our rookery, with about dozen individuals, however, is mere chicken feed - Buckenham woodland in Norfolk has been recorded as hosting up to 80,000 birds... Now that is something to crow about!

BYGONE BOSWORTH

Images from the Historical Society's Archive Collection

A popular local event for many years over the May Bank Holiday at the end of May* was the annual Welford Steam Rally, which was hosted by the Coventry Gliding Club on Husbands Bosworth airfield. The event was a major attraction, running from 1970 when a group of local steam enthusiasts, who had been exhibiting their engines at the annual Welford Carnival approached the Gliding Club committee, with a view to widening the scope of their interest with a joint-venture flying and steam fair.

There was some surprise when the first event attracted 2,800 visitors, but over the years the popularity of the event saw visitor numbers top 30,000. By 1980, the event had become a victim of its own success, and the extent of the activity across the site prevented Club members from flying during the weekend. The Club saw the inability to fly, both club flying and providing joy rides, which provided income and publicity for gliding, as a major inconvenience and lost interest in providing a site. Initially a pause was proposed, to be for one year whilst the situation was reviewed. However, the rally organisers cast around for alternative sites with less restrictions and they gladly fell on the offer of a site a few miles down the road, at Hollowell.

We thank Gliding Club stalwart, Sid Gilmore for the aerial view of the first event in 1970, and for his encyclopedic background knowledge ...

* We only had ONE Bank Holiday in May until 1978 when the Labour Government controversially introduced the May Day holiday at the beginning of the month, which was widely seen at the time as a contentious Socialist ploy.

ALL SAINTS CHURCH

The Lost Son

There is a famous parable about a rich man who had two sons. The younger one itched to get his share of the family estate when his father died and scandalously asked his father to give him his share now; an action that was tantamount to wishing his father dead. Amazingly, the father agrees to his request.

No sooner does he have his share of the money, and he is off, living the high life in a far away country, parties every night, surrounded by many new 'friends'.

Of course, the inevitable happens, his money runs out, and his so-called 'friends' desert him. A famine hits the country and he is literally starving to death and he pleads for someone to give him a job, so he can buy food. Finally, someone agrees to offer him, a Jewish man, a job feeding the pigs - the ultimate insult to someone for whom pigs are religiously 'unclean' animals. But he is desperate and takes the job.

At rock bottom, he finally comes to his senses and remembers that in his father's house even the servants were well-treated. He resolves to go back, renounce his 'sonship', as he knows he is no longer worthy, intending to ask his father to take him on as a slave.

On his way home he rehearses the speech he will make to his father. But his father, who has been constantly hoping for his son's return, sees him and runs to greet him, throws his arms around him, and kisses him. The son begins his speech, but his father interrupts him and he is brought fine clothes and new shoes and a party is to be thrown to welcome him home.

This parable of Jesus, is, in a very real sense, the story of every Christian. We have all turned away from our heavenly Father and gone our own way. Maybe most of us don't fall as far from the path as the Prodigal, but it is only a question of degree.

But as soon as we do turn back to God, amazingly, we don't find condemnation and recrimination, but mercy and forgiveness, from a Father who loves us, throws his arms around us and restores us back into his family.

That is the amazing message of Easter. Because of Jesus dying for us on the cross, God's mercy, love, and forgiveness are offered to us.

I wonder, have you turned back to the Father? The churches of Husbands Bosworth exist for one purpose only, to help you know how incredibly you are loved.

FRIENDS OF ALL SAINTS

Thank you to those people who have showed an interest in setting a 'Friends' group for the maintenance of the Parish Church. A few more volunteers from the village would make it very worth while. When we feel that the list of people interested is complete we will organise a meeting.

Please contact Peter Bugge or Di Jones.

Foodbank Collection

Friday May 16th 2.00pm to 4.30pm

Due to bad weather on the day of the last collection we had a very small total. Please make this a really good collection for a very worthy cause.

ALL SAINTS CHURCH AGM

Wednesday, May 13th 2025 at 10.00am.

We would like to see as many people as possible for our Annual General Meeting to hear about our activities and worship over the last 12 months.

There are changes taking place in the Diocese which will affect All Saints Church. As this is the village parish church, it belongs to us all.

If you feel you would like to take part in the AGM by voting or if you would like to be a member of the PCC, you will need to be on the Electoral Roll, so please contact either myself Di Jones 01858 880741 dianajones929@gmail.com. or Peter Bugge 01858 437929.
