

WOOD WORK

The Millennium Wood has looked particularly green and welcoming this year, despite the lack of rainfall. A new picnic bench has been installed at the top of the site, and work is carrying on in the background to seek grants to improve the pathways and access.

The Trustees are now looking for help to keep the facility in trim. The facility is a great community asset, but its future relies on the community to step up to the mark and help keep it open... This is likely to be mainly minor maintenance tasks, clearing overgrowth, tidying up pathways and topping up the wood-chip.

If you are able to help, or are just interested, we will be holding an open-morning work party on Saturday, July 12th - meet on site, off Mill Lane, at 10.00am. Come along, even if it's only for an hour or so, or just to show your support and see what is entailed.

We have some tools but the main object of the meeting is to re-establish a volunteer group for on-going projects and maintenance.

GREATER LEICESTER

A recent national government directive has instructed local government to reassess their boundaries and amalgamate local authorities into unitary bodies. The main aim is to take out a layer of administration and streamline democracy at local level, to cut costs and improve efficiency

In Leicestershire three proposals have been put forward:

- The City Council is proposing an enlarged city, plus a single, but reduced, county authority - the do-nut proposal...
- The County Council is looking to take over the whole of the county and city - effectively making the existing County Council the unitary authority.
- The district councils, including Harborough, argue that a single authority would be too remote and are pushing for a half-way measure, dividing the county into north and south and leaving the city as it is, as a separate authority - the North-City-South option.

The final proposals need to be submitted to central government by November 28th, when a decision on which option will go forward to public consultation will be made. More information can be found at: northcitysouth.co.uk

GREEN CREDENTIALS

Harborough District Council are currently undertaking an Open Spaces Strategy Review and conducting site audits across the district. The audit team will be assessing over 300 open spaces within the district, irrespective of ownership, and assessing them for quality and community value.

The auditors will have identification badges and will only access sites from publicly accessible locations.

The findings from the audit will provide information to prioritise Council and partner investment to improve the quality of open space and to provide data for consideration in the provision of new open space.

Should you have any queries about the process please contact Matthew Bills, Neighbourhood and Green Spaces Office at HDC.

SHEEPDOGS IN THE DOCK...

A firm fixture in the local country calendar, Husbands Bosworth & Theddingworth Sheepdog Trials returns to Bosworth Park on Friday and Saturday, 26th and 27th July.

First recorded in Husbands Bosworth in 1905 in conjunction with various other sporting events in a village gala day, the trials, as we know them today, evolved from these early beginnings. Today the trials attract competitors from across the British Isles, and feed into the national and international trialing arena. Come along and watch the action - licensed bar and refreshments available.

Editor's Note: The Parish Council received this response regarding traffic travelling the wrong way on our one-way streets, following concerns raised by villagers.

From Calum MacLauchlan, Traffic & Safety Management, Leicestershire County Council

Thank you for contacting us regarding concerns raised around vehicles travelling in contravention of the one-way movement restriction along Bell Lane and Berridges Lane. We are sorry to hear of any incidents that have occurred, however the County Council has no power to take action against vehicles that are ignoring 'no entry' signs. Drivers ignoring a one-way restriction and no-entry signage is a moving traffic offence, which only the Police have the power to enforce.

All signs relating to one-way systems have to follow set guidance, which states how and where signs should be placed and the distance between them, as well as the placement and number of no-entry signs. The signs on both Bell Lane and Berridges Lane have been installed as per this guidance.

The only additional steps LCC could take regarding physical measures, would be to make the existing hatched lining at the bottom of Bell lane, where it meets Leicester Road, into a raised build-out. However, we would need evidence of vehicles regularly ignoring the one-way restriction to justify the cost of such works, as this can be in excess of £50,000. Residents can report their concerns, inclusive of any evidence, to us directly via the following link: www.leicestershire.gov.uk/contact-information.

Any vehicles observed doing so should also be reported to Leicestershire Police directly on their non-emergency number '101' or via the following link: <https://www.leics.police.uk/ro/report/rti/rti-b/report-a-road-traffic-incident/>.

BOSWORTH IN FOCUS

WILD ABOUT BOSWORTH

In my garden, like, I suspect, a lot of gardens, the wood pigeon rules the roost - literally... It's rare that sitting outside on a sunny day isn't accompanied by a pigeon chorus as they wait in turn to carry out a snatch and grab raid on the scatterings from the bird feeder.

Over the past few years however, a new bird on the block has started to muscle in on the garden action.. the collared dove.

Very much like a mini-woody, the collared dove is a more uniform pink-grey colour and slightly sleeker, with a distinctive white-bordered black collar on the nape of its neck. They tend to be faster and more agile and less tuneless than their stocky and staid bigger brothers, and more gregarious - often appearing in pairs or small groups. Their behaviour is passive-aggressive and they tend to out-compete competitors in confined environments such as domestic gardens.

Originating from Turkey they were first noted as breeding in the UK as late as 1956. Their population growth has been phenomenal, from the Mediterranean regions and into north Europe and east as far as China, they are now found throughout the British Isles, including the Outer Isles. Migrating into North America from birds introduced into the Bahamas in the 1970s, they can now be found in most states of the United States and Mexico.

Thankfully it has been noted that their populations tend to stabilise where they have colonised, perhaps due to disease or predation. So, hopefully the all-together more pleasing coo-coo of the wood pigeon will continue to accompany the morning coffee on the patio...

SHOW BUSINESS

Husbands Bosworth Horticultural & Craft Show

Sunday, 24th August

Here at Horti-Show HQ we're all set for another splendid show of village veg, produce and crafts! The Village Hall is booked and the judges poised and ready to go... If you are new to the village, this is the community event of the year - and absolutely anyone can join in, whatever your age or ability!

For those who did well in the 2024 show and had various cups and plates awarded in recognition of their produce or talent, please can you dust them off, maybe a bit of spit and polish to buff them up and return them to 2 Green Lane, or call me to arrange pick up. You should receive your Show Schedules, with showing tips and advice, with this issue of the Bugle - last year we had 65 entrants and a total of 325 exhibits.

From the length of your bean to the gloss of your spuds; the size of your onions and the firmness of your soft fruits... Cakes, bakes, preserves and brews, stitch-craft, photos, artistic masterpieces and the vegetable that looks most like its owner! (Ed: We made the last one up...) In short, something for everyone...

SCHOOL REPORT

HUSBANDS BOSWORTH C. of E. PRIMARY SCHOOL Head of School Alison Vickers

Class 2 thoroughly enjoyed their recent school trip to Leicester Botanical Gardens. They took part in a food 'treasure hunt' to find different foods growing from different plants from all around the world. They then combined the foods together with some flour, eggs and butter to make a 'whole world cake'!

In the afternoon, the children took part in three different activities: identifying herbs and their uses, learning about the parts of a plant and making a tree using natural resources and then the children did some lovely bark and leaf rubbings.

The children were extremely well behaved and were very enthusiastic and engaged with their activities and a real credit to the school.

BYGONE BOSWORTH

Images from the Historical Society's Archive Collection

We are always on the lookout for Husbands Bosworth related items that come up for sale on eBay, and so were taken by this High Street scene when it recently came up. Although we have a number of similar views of All Saints Church from this angle, there are always little 'extras' that can be teased out of a 'new' picture...

Standing in the middle of the street cradling your little sister for a long-exposure photograph, as evidenced by the blurred image of the little girl in the flouncy dress, suggests that there was very little traffic. Note also that everyone appears to be wearing their 'Sunday best'...

Interestingly, in the original it is possible to see that the church clock is at a quarter to six, whereas the shadows clearly indicate that the sun is in the south - certainly before midday! Note also that the War Memorial has yet to be erected (in 1921) and that the church gate is still on Theddingworth Road (moved to Church Street in 1960).

We have a number of photographic postcards in the Historical Society Archive Collection that appear to be from the same series. They were probably taken around 1910 - 1912, by local draper and photographer, C. S. Frost, who had a shop on High Street and took many photographs locally around this time.

Although this postcard is, in fact, postally unused, it is interesting to note that most of the used postcards that we have in the Archive were sent far and wide as a cheap and convenient 'thank-you' for hospitality received by the sender or for services rendered, and would have been sold in the village Post Office.

It should be noted that until the introduction of the two-tier postal system on September 16th 1968, unsealed letters and postcards could be sent cheaper than sealed mail.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Our Winter Programme this year promises to be wide and varied in the subjects that we have lined up...

We kick off proceedings on Wednesday, October 1st, when we will be welcoming villager, Jason Green.

Jason is a traditional blacksmith, specialising in historical reproduction ironwork, which is usually worked using the same methods as would have been used in the day, such as open-hearth forgework.

Much of Jason's work is for re-enactment groups, focusing mainly on weaponry, armoury and domestic items, with many commissions for TV and film companies, museums and castles.

During this season we will also look at morris dancing, canal art, conservation bookbinding and the Eleanor Crosses.

As part of the Leicestershire & Rutland Festival of Archaeology, Market Harborough Historical Society are hosting a talk by Mathew Morris, of the University of Leicester, who will update us on the amazing story of how the remains of Richard III were found under a car park in Leicester.

Tuesday 8th July, 7.30pm at The Methodist Church, Northampton Road, Market Harborough. THE TALK IS FREE!

TENNIS COURTS

The Tennis Club has now wound up operations and has opened up the courts for public use, free of charge.

Please continue to treat the courts and the surrounds with respect, be courteous to other users, and remember that they are for tennis-related sports only.

Please note that access to the token-operated electricity supply to the flood lights is presently disconnected and may be reconnected by request to the Parish Clerk once the formal transfer is agreed.

VILLAGE LUNCH

The next village lunch will be on Tuesday July 29th at the Kilworth Springs Golf Club South Kilworth Road, North Kilworth. We meet at 12.30pm to eat at 1.00pm.

The Village Lunch is a great place for those new to the area, retired or living alone to meet up with old friends, catch up with all the local gossip and make new friends whilst enjoying an excellent home cooked meal in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere.

The cost of the two-course meal including tea/coffee and mints is £13.50 per person. All dietary needs are catered for, please ask for details.

Please call Jo on 07534057575 if you would like to book a place, arrange transport to the venue or for any other information.

Next month's Village Lunch date:

Wednesday, August 27th

CAUSEWAY COFFEE

The next Causeway Coffee morning will be on Friday, July 11th.

Causeway Coffee Mornings are held on the second Friday of each month, 10.00am to 11.30am at the Sports Pavilion, Kilworth Road and are open to anyone in the parish who is retired and living alone.

Come along and have a coffee and a piece of cake with us, have a chat and browse our extensive jigsaw and book library.

If you hear of anyone living locally who may be alone, vulnerable or needing support let the Causeway team know...

CRAFT GROUP

The Craft Group meets on the second Wednesday of each month in the Committee Room of the Village Hall, 7.00pm to 9.00pm. This is a friendly and informal gathering where craft-minded people can pick up new ideas and practise their craft in a relaxed atmosphere away from the distractions of home life.

For details contact Gail on 880413.

The July meeting of Welford and Sulby Historical Society will be on Wednesday, July 2nd when we will be hosting a film evening featuring the story of the Land Girls. We will also have a film documenting the work of the local Langton Brewery... and there will be samples available to try!

We meet in the Congregational Chapel, West Street at 7.00pm. A door charge of £3.50 is requested.

CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

ALL SAINTS CHURCH NEWS

This will be my last contribution to the Bosworth Bugle. After four years serving the churches of the Hexagon Benefice as Curate, I am moving to France to be Chaplain to St Mark's Church, Versailles, with St Paul's Church, Gif-sur-Yvette. These are two Church of England churches serving the English-speaking community in this area. So, a very big change for me from the six peaceful villages of the Hexagon Benefice!

But the Hexagon Benefice is also poised for big change. The parish re-structuring process is about to make us part of a Minster Community - a larger grouping of churches, served by a team of lay and ordained people. So, it is 'All change' for everyone!

All of which has made me reflect on the experience of change and how we navigate large disruptions in our life. In Psalms 11 King David expresses well our feelings of anxiety in the face of change. When the foundations are being destroyed, what can the righteous do?

Look at the list of recent 'disruptions' - Covid, Brexit, climate change, war in Ukraine and the Middle-East, riots and troops on the streets in Los Angeles... It is no surprise that we often feel like 'the foundations are being destroyed'?

It is interesting to note how David continues his psalm:

'The Lord is in his holy temple; the Lord is on his heavenly throne. He observes everyone on earth; his eyes examine them.'

The Lord examines the righteous, but the wicked, those who love violence, he hates with a passion. 'On the wicked he will rain fiery coals and burning sulphur; a scorching wind will be their lot'. God's rule and reign over the entire universe is solid and incontestable.

Moreover, David reminds us that God pays attention to our lives, sees the goodness of the righteous and the evil of the wicked. Righteousness will have its reward and evil will get its comeuppance - in this life or the next.

Knowing this can bring us a sense of perspective. We can make peace with things, knowing that there will be justice, and God will make all things right. Nothing good we do will ever be a waste of effort, not from the perspective of eternity. So, whatever change you face, try to take comfort in David's words. I wish you well, and pray God's blessing upon the people of Husbands Bosworth.

Stephen ✠

Editor's Note: Stephen's last service at Bosworth will be on July 13th, 10.30am

NEW CHURCHWARDENS

All Saints Church members are pleased to announce that Jeremy Ingram and Peter Bugge were recently inducted as Churchwardens. The office of Churchwarden dates from the 13th century, and provides a link between the incumbent, the Parochial Church Council and the Bishop. Churchwardens are responsible for the fabric of the church and maintaining 'order and decency' in the church and churchyard during Divine Service! There is much more of course, all entangled with legal directives dating back centuries.

Di Jones, who has been Churchwarden for many years is standing down, but thankfully will remain a member of the PCC so Jeremy and I will have the benefit of her experience and guidance. Our thanks to Di for the time and effort that she has put into keeping All Saints' church in good order for the community of Husbands Bosworth.
