

OUR REMEMBRANCE

As a training and type-conversion unit, RAF Husbands Bosworth understandably suffered losses. Young Amen of 18 to 21 years of age were given control of heavy twin-engined aircraft, often care-worn examples cast down from the operational units, and expected to fly in all weathers. Whilst the Wellington was renowned for its ability to take incredible amounts of punishment, it could be an unforgiving aircraft to fly in novice hands, with a marked propensity to put its nose down and fly into the ground. Many Accident Reports cite pilot inexperience as contributory to the accident.

On the afternoon of September 26th 1943, whilst returning from a routine training flight, Wellington bomber, DV697, 'Sir George Huggins O.B.E' developed an engine fault and crashed within Bosworth Park, with the loss of four of the five crew members. The aircraft was one of three paid for by the Trinidad Bomber Fund and named for a prominent West Indies businessman.

THE FOXTON PADDLE

The Canal & River Trust and Foxton Paddle Club have joined forces to offer an opportunity for folk to try paddleboarding in a safe and controlled series of sessions. All watersports and water-related activities, including paddleboarding have been seen to improve both physical and mental well-being, and are often offered in social prescribing schemes and in confidence-building exercises.

The sessions, which are aimed primarily at new-comers to the sport, start on Thursday, September 4th at Foxton Locks and continue for 5 weeks. Sessions are offered at 2.00pm and 6.00pm and are open to anyone over 18 years of age.

BUGLE POSTBAG

From A Disgruntled Newbie

Can we, through the pages of the Bugle, respectfully ask that dog walkers are more diligent in picking up their dog poo? Recently, there seems to have been an increase in poos actually left in the middle of pathways, where it is obviously likely that someone is going to put their foot in it!

As relative newcomers to the village, and dog owners ourselves, we really appreciate the many different walking routes that we have available to us around the village. In fact it was one of the reasons we had for moving to the village, and we are generally pleased (compared to where we used to live!) with the consideration of dog walkers. However, as always, a few lazy folk spoil it for others. The village has provided poo bins on all the most used dog walks, so you're never far from a bin - please us them!

To contact your Dedicated Neighbourhood Team (DNT) online, use the quick and simple online contact tool - Search Lutterworth Police. You will be asked a few questions to make sure your query gets to the right place.

As you will see in our Beat News, the Beat Team will be 'spreading our wings' in September, firstly by providing a presence during the evening at Stanford Hall's MiniFest car gathering and secondly at the Lutterworth Careers Fair, where we will perhaps be able to answer some of your questions about a career in the police.

If you see us at these events do give us a nod and say hello!

QR, or not QR?

Although we've not been made aware of any recent QR parking scams in our area, drivers should be aware of a spate of similar incidents reported to our colleagues in the north of the county. The scammers have got more sophisticated, and where in the past small stickers have been crudely applied over existing payment options, in a number of recent incidents the whole frontage of the parking payment device has been cloned to include the bogus QR coding, making it difficult to detect until the code is scanned. If you do scan a QR code you will be able to see the originators URL and if you are not happy with the 'address' we urge you to consider making payment by another route - perhaps considering PaybyPhone options if offered.

Victims of this crime should also be aware that since a successful payment has not been made to the site's legitimate parking company they may be prosecuted for non-payment.

BOSWORTH IN FOCUS

WILD ABOUT BOSWORTH

In this series of articles we have looked at the introductions of non-native species that have been largely accommodated into our natural environment. However, a number of less appreciated introductions have gone 'rogue' and caused unexpected consequences. This month we look at Japanese Knotweed. Introduced into the country in the mid 19th century as an ornamental garden plant, with its extremely vigorous growth and super resilient rhizomatous root system, it soon out-grew its welcome, quickly becoming a pest.

Whilst it's not a legal requirement to remove Japanese knotweed from your property, it is a requirement to control it in a manner not to 'cause distress, damage or discomfort' to neighbouring properties. The plant's 'party trick' is its relentless ability to force its way up through minute cracks in solid concrete or tarmac. The plant's tenacity has become an economic problem where mortgage companies have refused to lend on properties that are affected, it being a legal requirement to notify prospective purchasers of the presence of knotweed on a property.

Thankfully it is readily identified by its leaf and stem configuration - dying back to the ground in the autumn, fresh shoots emerge in the spring, which by late summer can attain a height of more than 3 metres (10 feet), with a thick canopy of large shield-shaped bright green leaves supported in a zig-zag pattern by the hollow bamboo-like stems. Ringlets of small white flowers will also appear between August and September.

Chemical control is often the only way to combat the issue - digging out is usually fruitless, as particles of rhizome as small as one centimetre have been shown to be able to regenerate into full plants within one season.

All is not lost, however... Japanese knotweed has been used in ancient medicine and, apparently, the stems are edible... yum!

NATIONAL GARDENS SCHEME

Open Gardens September 2025

Close to home this month... St. Wolstan's House, 1 Church Nook, Wigston Magna, LE18 3RA will have an evening opening on Saturday, 20th September, 6.30pm - 9.00pm. St. Wolstan's packs in a lot of garden into an urban environment.. The ½ acre garden is divided into several 'rooms' of formal and informal plantings, including rose and wisteria pergola, laburnum arch, a sunken Italian Garden, a 'white' garden and features an Edwardian conservatory that will be lit up for this special occasion. Light refreshments. Admission £5, Children free.

CHOIR PRACTICE

Foxton Community Choir would like to thank everyone who supported our recent Summer Dreamin' concert. It was an evening of great music, love and laughter, with the choir performing a range of toe-tapping tunes,, alongside traditional choral pieces.

The choir is running a taster evening on Thursday 11th September, at 7.30pm in St. Andrew's Church, Foxton. If you're free on Thursday evenings and looking to make new social connections, then we would love to see you there. There are no auditions and subs are very affordable (less than £4 per week), so if you enjoy singing in the shower, then come along and give singing in a fun and friendly community choir a go!

Our thanks also go to Harborough Theatre, as the choir will benefit from a gala performance of 'Lilies on the Land', the story of the role of the Women's Land Army in WWII, at the theatre on Monday 22nd September at 7.30pm. Tickets are £15 and can be bought from WeGotTickets.com (search for 'Foxton'). Alternatively phone Gill Wollerton on 07748 131512

She is committed to providing a high-quality education and creating a nurturing environment where every child feels safe, supported, and equipped with the tools they need to reach their full potential. Sarah is looking forward to meeting parents, families and the local community.

BYGONE BOSWORTH

Images from the Historical Society's Archive Collection

Recently, we have focused on the relocation and rededication of the memorial to the Wellington bomber crash that occurred in September 1943. However, there is another memorial in Bosworth Park to an air crash that happened earlier in the war.

This second air accident memorial remembers a Miles Master two-seater trainer, which crashed on August 28th 1942, before the aerodrome was fully operational.

The aircraft, N7889, was dispatched from the Anti-Aircraft Co-operation Unit based at RAF Castle Bromwich, Birmingham, to carry out anti-aircraft gun traversing practice for gun-crews stationed close to Bosworth Hall. The aircraft clipped a tree during a low pass and broke up on hitting the ground, killing the 33 year old Polish Air Force pilot, Flying Officer Jerzy Marian Ramert and his 14 year old Air Training Corps pupil passenger, Cadet Roy John Shaw.

In April 2011, representatives of Bosworth village, the Royal British Legion and the local Polish community, including a number who had been billeted on the former RAF base after the war, unveiled the memorial and rowan tree on the site of the accident.

Buried at Witton Cemetery, Birmingham, Shaw must be one of the youngest airmen killed 'on active service' to be commemorated with a Commonwealth War Graves headstone.]

THE HERITAGE FACTOR...

Historic buildings and venues across Harborough district will be opening their doors and welcoming visitors as part of the national Heritage Open Days festival between September 12th and 21st.

Locally there are 12 activities and events that people can take part in, many of which don't need prior booking... and all for FREE during the festival!

Wonder at the oldest windmill in Leicestershire, discover the origins of Foxton Locks, uncover the myths of a Masonic temple, go behind the scenes at Harborough Theatre and explore medieval church gargoyles and local archaeology test pits.

The Symington Building in Market Harborough is currently undergoing a major programme of renovation and restoration, and on September 13th and 20th visitors will be able to take a tour inside the former factory to learn more, see photos and film from the archives and hear how Harborough's corsets travelled the globe!

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Our new season of indoor meetings is almost upon us... We kick off our Winter Programme on Wednesday, October 1st, at 7.30pm in the Sports Pavilion, when we will be welcoming local conservation ironworker and blacksmith, Jason Green.

Jason is a time-served farrier and blacksmith and lives in the village. Seeing a gap in the market, he branched out into fabricating reproduction ironwork and armoury, using traditional methods, materials and equipment. His focus is on the historical re-enactors' scene, but along the way he has been commissioned to create work for TV companies and historical venues.

You will often see Jason's unique creations wrapped securely in brown-paper behind the counter at the village Post Office, on their way to his customers!

Come along and hear about Jason's work, and the history behind the pieces...

Husbands Bosworth Historical Society is a friendly group, meeting at 7.30pm on the first Wednesday of each month at the Sports Pavilion, Kilworth Road, October through to April.

Subscription is £15 for the year, or £3 door charge for non-members.

CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

ALL SAINTS CHURCH NEWS

Stephen and Sharon March were seen on their way by a good number of the Hexagon Benefice congregation after Stephen took morning service at Arnesby on 3rd August. Before a bring-and-share lunch they were presented with a gift which we thought might help Stephen to put some wine in the cellar of their new home! We will miss them both and wish them well for the future. Stephen will be licensed in his new post in France on 31st August.

A meeting has been arranged with the Area Dean, on 10th September, when we will be able to discuss the practical details of the Benefice being 'in vacancy'. Thanks to a number of retired priests who are being very generous with their time, we are maintaining our Wednesday services at 10.00am at All Saints, and the Sunday services at 10.30am around the benefice churches, as usual, although there will be occasions when a lay person takes a service. This occurred on 13th August when a churchwarden conducted a simple service with readings and prayers by members of the congregation, when the opportunity offered by the proximity to the 80th anniversary of VJ Day was taken to think of those who suffer but are never seen on TV or in the media. We hope to have good support at the meeting on 17th September in the Village Hall at 7.30 to set up Friends of All Saints Church, which is intended to care for the church itself in the future. Also, please put the weekend of 6th/7th December in your diaries when there will again be a Christmas Tree Festival in the church.

Peter Bugge [Churchwarden]

RIDE AND STRIDE

Saturday 13th September is Ride and Stride Day, when people can cycle, ride a horse or walk to as many churches as possible to raise money for The National Churches Trust which gives financial support to churches for necessary repairs. Anyone can do this - half of the sponsorship money goes to the trust, the other half to a church of your choice. If interested, please contact Peter Jones on 880741 for information.

All Saints Church will be open all day 10.00am to 4.00pm. Even if you're not participating, please do come down and take this opportunity to look around, have a chat and enjoy tea/coffee and homemade cake.
