

REMEMBER YOUR POPPY!

As a community, we've done a lot of remembering recently... In the September Bugle, we remembered the Polish pilot and his air-cadet passenger; the victims of an air accident over Bosworth Park in the months before RAF Husbands Bosworth was opened to operations. Also, in September, in our rededication ceremony at the memorial in Butt Lane, we remembered those crew members who were the lost in the Wellington bomber crash in 1943.

Now, in November, as we come to the period of national remembrance we will be remembering those who gave their lives in the two world wars, and in conflicts since, so that we can enjoy the freedom that we sometimes take for granted.

This year, following the stand-down of our local branch of the Royal British Legion, there will be no formal door-to-door collection around the village. The Legion, as a group, however, still soldiers on, as it has for more than 100 years, supporting ex-servicemen, their families and their dependents. So, look out for collection boxes, in the village shop, in the Bell and around town, donate generously and wear your poppy with pride!

Join us, at 10.45am on Sunday, November 9th, as we remember, at the village War Memorial, those of our parish who gave their lives.

Editor's Note: Those who missed the Wellington crash memorial ceremony can catch up with it on YouTube at: <https://youtu.be/wZrGtwowQWc?si=ov4YynyNIV1hqUBP>

STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

The casual passer-by might have had a double-take recently, when passing All Saints church... A pair of ladders and two men were to be seen scaling the tower.

Alas, they were not there to get nearer to God - the intrepid pair had the more mundane task of removing the rosebay willow-herb that had taken up residence in the stonework, threatening to destabilise the masonry.

It's all part of the never-ending task of keeping our fine parish church upright... and available!

Editor's Note: Genesis 28:10-19 tells us of Jacob's dream of a ladder to Heaven. (Apologies to Led Zeppelin...)

MEDICINE CABINET

Bosworth Surgery's automated collection kiosk is up and running. The facility aims to simplify and speed up the collection of prescriptions, and offer the convenience of 24 hour collection. The service will be especially convenient for out-of-hours collections, the pick-up of repeat prescriptions and for those collecting an acute prescription.

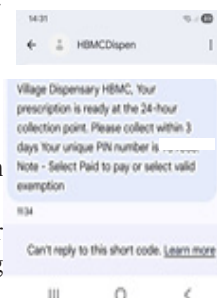

Anyone collecting their prescriptions normally at the dispensary window will be able to choose to have future items dispensed through the kiosk, although face-to-face collections will still be available. Scan the QR code on the device to register your consent, or speak to a dispenser.

There are obvious limitations on the type of medications that can be delivered through the kiosk - controlled drugs and refrigerated items can't generally be delivered by the device. Also please note that, as the kiosk can only hold a maximum of 80 items, there may be times when the facility is unavailable and dispensing will revert to over-the-counter.

In practice, prescriptions are ordered as normal - either at the counter or by popping the request form in the letter box. When the order is ready for collection, the patient will be sent a six-digit PIN code via an SMS text message, which will be valid for 5 days.

Operating the system couldn't be simpler.... Just tap the touch screen to wake it up and type in your PIN code. If you need to pay, (card only) a message and instructions will appear on the screen. Once the transaction is complete the corresponding locker will illuminate, and you will be able to open it.

BUGLE POSTBAG

From Canon Chris Oxley, Lammas Close

First of all, an opportunity to say 'thank you' to everyone in the village who has made Paula and myself so welcome here. Paula, as daughter of Pat and Ken Halden, is now back in the house where she grew up!

Remembrance...Sunday, November 9th we are all invited to come to All Saints church at 10.30am, for the parishes Annual Service of Remembrance, to be joined by our friends from St Mary's Catholic church.

From my three years at the Anglican cathedral in Brussels, I have very clear memories of standing under the arch of the Menin Gate in Ieper (Ypres), on which are inscribed the names of over 54,000 British and Commonwealth soldiers who fell in that area, and whose graves are unknown. How many families were deeply affected by those losses? Paula's grandfather, William Halden, who farmed at Firs Farm on Welford Road, was a stretcher-bearer throughout that conflict at nearby Poperinge.

Described optimistically at the time as "The War to End All Wars", the 1914-18 Conflict didn't fulfil that hope. During our three years in Brussels, I was working with people in NATO and what is now called the EU - institutions both established after the horrors of 1939-45, following all the massive loss of life and literally millions of refugees on the road. Currently there is a war in Europe, with increasing tensions along NATO's borders. Wars across whole areas of Africa and Asia, death and destruction in Gaza and the West Bank and the continuing displacement of millions... the list goes on.

World leaders, by their words and whims and actions, touch the lives of millions, and are impacting incalculably on the future of the planet. As we gather to remember, you may also want to join in prayer for world leaders and those who hold economic power, for wisdom and for a peace which is based not on military and economic threat, but on justice. Without justice, there will be no peace.

PRECEDING PUBLICATION

POLICE FILE

To contact your Dedicated Neighbourhood Team (DNT) online, use the quick and simple online contact tool - Search Lutterworth Police. You will be asked a few questions to make sure your query gets to the right place.

The Information Commissioner's Office has recently outlined a general code of practice that will help in matters of personal privacy, especially aimed at CCTV and door-bell cameras. Where possible, owners should position their cameras to only capture their own property - you shouldn't capture more than you need to... However, in practice, especially in the street scene, this may not be possible.

Where CCTV captures someone else's property, a public area or communal space, and images, voices or personal information of other people may be captured, then data protection law applies. For more information and guidance please go to: ico.org.uk

The subject of home surveillance equipment is not usually a policing matter, and generally, disputes and queries will be referred to the ICO. However, where genuine distress, proven harassment or inappropriate use of the device, or data collected is noted, the police will be able to ascertain if an offence has been committed.

BOSWORTH IN FOCUS

WILD ABOUT BOSWORTH

Ash Die-back

In this series we've looked at a number of non-native invaders into the natural environment of the UK. In general, introduced species tend to be intentionally imported species of fauna and flora that, at the time, were deemed to be ornamental or helpful to us or the environment in some way, but which have subsequently developed less favourable traits.

The really pesky ones though, are those that make their own way to our shores, often as seed or spores, on the wind or on imported materials. Ash die-back comes into this category. Ash die-back is not actually the disease, it's the symptom. The disease is caused by a fungus that grows within the ash tree, disrupting the flow of water and nutrients through the plant and manifesting itself as the distinctive dying back of the crown and tender growing shoots of the tree. Younger, more vigorous trees are affected most, as they are more actively growing than older trees. In the youngsters the outcome is generally the complete death of the tree, whereas in more mature and less active trees there is a greater resistance, where the tree may survive but is greatly challenged. A couple of typical victims are found along the road to Theddingworth; one completely dead and, on the other side of the road, another gamefully fighting back.

First reported in the south-east of the UK in 2012, it was initially thought that disease spores blowing over from the Continent were the source. However, subsequent tracking of the progress of the disease indicated that infected imported stock was also largely to blame. Thankfully, there is evidence that the UK ash population has a better resistance to the disease than those on the Continent, where up to 95% of affected trees have been lost... touch wood!

CHOIR CONCERT

Foxton Community Choir's Christmas concert, 'A Christmas Sparkle', will take place in St. Andrew's Church in Foxton on Friday 12th December at 7.30pm. Rehearsals are well underway for a performance of festive music both traditional and less familiar. The concert coincides with Foxton's annual Christmas Tree Festival, so the church will also be sparkling! Tickets, priced £10, can be obtained by calling Gill on 07748 131512 or Toni on 07944 528174.

If you're free on Thursday evenings and looking to make new social connections, then we would love to welcome you to our group! There are no auditions and subs are very affordable (less than £4 per week). Give singing in a fun and friendly community choir a go!

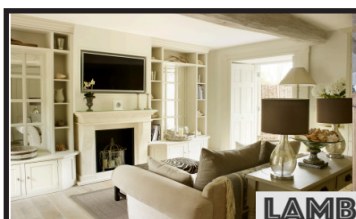

MILLENNIUM WOOD

You can't have failed to notice that this autumn is shaping up to be a truly bumper season of mellow fruitfulness...

The naturalists tell us that it is a 'mast year'; a year when nature reacts to stress in it's growing season, (the summer drought!). By producing an over-abundance of fruits and seeds to help to ensure its future. That's why the top fruits, especially berries, plums and apples, have produced lots of potential offspring!

Down at the village's community woodland there's also been a grand show of sloes - and they're just asking to be picked and infused in gin! Nature's freebies... Cheers!

SCHOOL REPORT

HUSBANDS BOSWORTH C. of E. PRIMARY SCHOOL Head of School Alison Vickers

Creativity Week brought a vibrant energy to every classroom, with children exploring the lives and work of a range of artists across the school.

Class 2 learned all about Kandinsky and why his abstract art was so famous. They particularly enjoyed experimenting with colour mixing! Class 3 explored the artwork by Claude Monet and recreated Monet's Bridge over a pond of water lilies, looking carefully at how Monet used the colour to reflect light and tone.

Class 4 looked at the industrial artwork by L S Lowry and focussed on using his famous five-colour palette to create their own industrial landscape and street scenes of Market Harborough. They had a lot of fun incorporating the cats, dogs and people that make Lowry's work so intriguing.

BYGONE BOSWORTH

Images from the Historical Society's Archive Collection

In November 1932 The Market Harborough Advertiser & Midland Mail reported that Market Harborough Urban District Council was considering tenders for the erection of six council houses in Welford Road. The tenders received were higher than expected, in the region of £2100 for building all six, and councillors quibbled the specification, pointing out that the Ministry of Housing had reduced the height of rooms in a previous application from eight feet to seven feet, and that it was likely that the bay windows would be deleted. However, the councillors felt that they should argue that the bay windows be retained, to match those of the previously built homes.

The borough surveyer pointed out that the tenders were also higher than expected due in part to the need to extend the land drainage by 100 yards, and also noted that the lie of the land meant that the last house would need a seven-step rise to the front door! The contract was eventually accepted, and in early 1933 an application was lodged with the Ministry of Housing for a grant of some £1900 towards the cost.

This classic hand-tinted photo postcard view, is from the Historical Society Archive.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

For our next meeting we will be welcoming villager, Penny Arscott, curator of Foxton Locks Museum, who will be recounting the saga of The Rise and Fall of Foxton Inclined Plane.

The boat lift was designed to by-pass and speed up the transit of canal traffic through the staircase flight of locks. However, structural problems, high running costs and the failure to upgrade the corresponding locks at Watford Gap, saw the moth-balling of the lift after only 10 years, and its eventual dismantling.

The meeting is on Wednesday, November 5th, at 7.30pm in the Sports Pavilion, Kilworth Road and is open to all - a door-charge of £3 is requested for non-members.

Annual membership is £15.

ART GROUP

For a second year, Harborough District Council (HDC) is administering a Community Grant Fund for Town and Parish Councils. CHURCH NEWS

All Saints Parish Church & St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church

ALL SAINTS CHURCH NEWS

The steeplejacks have been to remove the Rosebay Willowherb from the steeple. Apparently there is some more work required to repair the roof damaged by the roots but the weed itself has been dealt with. The quinquennial (once every five years) inspection is scheduled for mid November, so before then we will be doing some clearing of gutters and general tidying of the parts that churchwardens can reach. The recent asbestos inspection revealed some that we didn't know about, but nothing that will affect our use of the church, though it will have to be removed.

There was a disappointing attendance at the meeting on 17th September when we hoped 'Friends of All Saints', a fund raising organisation, would be started. However one person has come forward to take the post of Treasurer. We still need a Chair and Secretary, so if anyone would like to support the church into the future in one of those positions do let me or Di Jones know (07920 850155 and 01858 880741 respectively).

The school Christmas service will be on 17th December at 10.00am, everyone welcome, and the usual parish Carol service will be on Sunday 14th December. Both will benefit from the trees and decorations still in place from the Christmas Tree Festival which will be open to everyone to visit on the weekend of 6th/7th December from 12.00pm to 5.00pm on each day. Finally, All Saints' Day is on 1st November and All Souls' Day is on 2nd November when traditionally the departed loved ones are remembered. So, on Saturday 1st November between 10.00am and 1.00pm there will be spring bulbs available for anyone to plant on the recently turfed banks of the path to the church in memory of friends and family members no longer with us. Bulbs and tools will be available.

LUTTERWORTH FOOD BANK

Many many thanks to all who contributed to our Harvest Food Bank collections. A great result was achieved, with the school collecting a whopping 83.2 kg, and Dairy Farm Nursery collecting 19.76kg. Lutterworth Food Bank is always very grateful for large donations and thank you all for your continued support.

Our special Food Bank Collection of festive items and Christmas treats will be in place during All Saints Christmas Tree Festival over the weekend of 6th/7th December, in order that donations can reach people in time for Christmas.
